

GROW WITH US - SUPPORT FERRON FAMILY FARMS FOR A HEALTHIER FUTURE!

Help a First-Generation family farm perserve food sovereignty and bring culturally significant ethically raised meats to our community.

“Ferron Family Farms, a small Black-owned operation in New Brunswick, is part of a growing movement of farms focused on food sovereignty-offering cuts and meats often unavailable in mainstream grocery stores.”

~The Globe and Mail

OUR MISSION:

- To build a meat processing facility that meets the needs of our culturally diverse customers
- To provide fresh, ethically raised meats-stright from our pasture to our plate
- To preserve and promote the rich food traditions of heritage and culture in our communities

HOW CAN YOU HELP

We're raising fund through GoFundMe to expand our operations and continue serving the community. Every dollar makes a difference.
