Vendor Eligibility

Open to individual artists and crafters presenting original works and to farmers selling produce, canned goods and baked goods. Non-profit organizations may sell baked goods or items being sold to raise money for their organization. This show will be juried to maintain balance and variety. A limited number of resale and commercial items of the highest quality may be accepted. Bandera Business Association reserves the right to reject any display that is not in keeping with the examples submitted.

City Vendor Permit Requirement

The City of Bandera requires ALL VENDORS to obtain a permit through the City Hall. There is a separate application and fee due before 5:00 pm the Wednesday before the event. If this deadline is missed, there is a $50.00 late charge to obtain a permit.

Please visit the City website at www.cityofbandera.org. A separate City Fee may be charged. Under "Business" there is a link titled Permitting. See those pages for more details.

Applications are submitted directly to the City via email at adminassist@cityofbandera.org. If you have questions about City Permits, please call 830-522-3126.
