ARTICLE IX
Provision for Regulation and Conduct of the Affairs of the Corporation

Section 9.07. Amendment of Articles of Incorporation. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in the Articles or any amendment hereto, in any manner now or hereafter prescribed or permitted by the Act or any amendment thereto; but such power of amendment does not authorize any amendment that would permit any part of the net earnings of the Corporation to inure to the benefit of any private individual, that would modify the provisions of Section 2.04 if such modification would have the effect of disqualifying this Corporation as an organization exempt from Federal income taxation under the provisions of Section 528 of the Code, as amended, or such equivalent provision as may hereafter exist from time to time, or that, would be in conflict with the provisions of the Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration.

Section 9.08. Non-Liability. No member or Director of the Association shall be liable for any of the Associations obligations.

Section 9.09. Consent Resolutions. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the members or of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if, prior to such action a written consent to such action is signed by all members or all Directors, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the members or of the Board.

Section 9.10. Liability to the Corporation. No person shall be liable to the Corporation for any loss or damage suffered by the Corporation on account of any action taken or omitted to be taken by such person in good faith as a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation if such person (A) exercised or used the same degree of care as an ordinary prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances; or (B) took or omitted to take such action in reliance upon information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case, prepared or presented by any officer, employee or committee of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or legal counsel, public accountants or other professional persons engaged by the Corporation, but such person shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if such person has actual knowledge concerning the matter in questions that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted; or (C) has not breached or failed to perform the duties of their position or office in compliance with the Act, Articles of the Corporation and By-Laws of the Corporation in a manner constituting willful misconduct or recklessness.

Section 9.11. Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify any Director or officer or former Director or officer of the Corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgment, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, administrative, or investigative, in which he was, is made, or is threatened to be made a party by reason of being or having been a Director or officer or former Director or officer of the Corporation, or serving or having served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, except in relation to matters as to which the person's acts or omissions are adjudged in the action, suit, or proceeding to be a breach of the person's duty to the Corporation. Such duty to the Corporation shall be to discharge the duties of the office in a manner that does not constitute willful misconduct or recklessness in the exercise of good faith and reasonable belief that the action or actions were in or not opposed to the best interest of the Corporation. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by adverse judgment, order, or settlement (whether with or without court approval) shall not, alone, create a presumption that the Director or officer or former Director or officer of the Corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, did not properly discharge his duty to the Corporation. If several claims, issues, or matters are involved, a Director or officer of former Director or officer of the Corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, may be entitled to indemnification concerning some matters even though indemnification may or can not be given concerning other matters, Any Director or officer serving in any capacity for another corporation, who were it not for the influence or vote of the Corporation would not be so serving, shall be deemed to be serving at the request of the Corporation.

In addition:

A. To the extent that an individual has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in this Section 9.11, or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the individual shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith.

B. Any indemnification, against underlying liability, provided for in this Section 9.11 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of any Director or officer or former Director or officer of the Corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 9.10. Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding; (2) if such an independent quorum is not obtainable, by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the full Board of Directors (in which designation directors who are parties may participate), consisting solely of two (2) or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding; (3) by special legal counsel (i) selected by the independent quorum of the Board of Directors (or the independent committee thereof if no such quorum can be obtained), or (ii) if no such independent quorum or committee thereof can be obtained, selected by majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which selection directors who are parties may participate); or (4) by the Members, who are not directors, who are at the time parties to the proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Director or officer or former Director or officer of the Corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, shall be able to contest any determination that he or she has not met the applicable standard of conduct, by petitioning a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

C. Expenses incurred in defending any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, administrative, or investigative, may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of any Director or officer or former Director or officer of the Corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, to repay the amount paid by the Corporation if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification as provided in the Articles of Incorporation. No advance shall be given if the Corporation has completed the determination of conduct procedure as provided for in Section 9.11(B) and it is determined that the individual will be precluded from indemnification.

D. The indemnification provided by this Section 9.11 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any By-Laws, agreement, vote of members or disinterested Directors, as a matter of law, or otherwise, both as to actions in the officer's or director's official capacity and as to actions in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

E. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation shall vest at the time of occurrence or performance of any event, act or omission giving rise to any action, suit or proceeding of the nature referred to in these Articles and, once vested, shall not later be impaired as a result of any amendment, repeal, alteration or other modification of any or all of these provisions.

Section 9.12. Conflicting Provisions. Any further provisions consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and the laws of this state, for the regulation and conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, and creating, defining, limiting or regulating the powers of this Corporation, of the Directors or of the members, may from time to time prescribed by the By-Laws of the Corporation. If there is any conflict between these Articles and the Declaration, the Declaration shall control. If there is a conflict between the By-Laws and the Declaration, the Declaration shall control. If there is any conflict between these Articles and the By-Laws, these Articles shall control.

ARTICLE X

Distribution of Assets on Dissolution or Final Liquidation

Section 10.01. The Corporation may be dissolved with the assent given in writing and signed by not less than two-thirds (2/3) of each class of members. Upon dissolution or liquidation of the Corporation, other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the assets of the Corporation shall be dedicated to an appropriate public agency to be used for purposes similar to those for which this Corporation was created. In the event that such dedication is refused acceptance, such assets shall be granted, conveyed and assigned to any non-profit corporation, Corporation, trust or other organization to be devoted to such similar purposes.
