MARCH 2021

VOLUME 33 ISSUE 3

Dear brothers & sisters in Christ Jesus,

Here we are, in the middle of Lent, toward the end of the dreary days of winter, wondering when things are ever going to get back to “normal” (whatever that is/was). I guess Lent is supposed to be a dark time, a season of shadows, when we focus on repentance, fasting and giving. But I will say that it’s not a very attractive face to put on our Christian faith. Who wants to focus on repentance? That doesn’t play well in our culture today.

The reality is that Jesus Christ - the true Jesus Christ revealed in the Bible - has never played well with people, not in his day and not in our time.

Here’s how the prophet Isaiah described the coming Christ:

“There was nothing beautiful or majestic about his appearance, nothing to attract us to him. He was despised and rejected—a man of sorrows, acquainted with deepest grief. We turned our backs on him and looked the other way. He was despised, and we did not care” (Is 53:2-3)

You see, the core of our Christian faith revolves around repentance and forgiveness, confession and absolution. We agree with what God says about us in his holy Word that we have a problem with sin (a fatal problem). When we say that, it’s called a “confession”.

The good news (that’s what the word “gospel” means) is that, hot on the heels of confession comes the extraordinary promise of God’s forgiveness - cleansing us from our sin and its death penalty for the sake of Jesus Christ - because of what Christ Jesus has done for us in his death and resurrection.

Now, it’s easy for me to rush toward resurrection and give only a fleeting glimpse at Christ’s death, but it is essential for us to be captured by the exquisite brilliance of new life in Christ Jesus when placed against the dark backdrop of the price that God paid to redeem us from our sin.

So, let us intentionally walk with our eyes wide open and our hearts tenderly sensitive during these dreary remaining days of winter and of Lent. Yes, we know that the wonder of Easter is waiting for us to celebrate next month, but remember that it is God’s light of salvation that shines most brightly when penetrating the darkness of our sin, or as the Bible so aptly puts it:

For God, who said, “Let there be light in the darkness,” has made this light shine in our hearts so we could know the glory of God that is seen in the face of Jesus Christ (2 Corinthians 4:6).

Grace & peace to you in Christ Jesus our Lord,

Pastor TODD

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

4. Honor your father and your mother.

5. You shall not kill.

6. You shall not commit adultery.

Let Us
Pray

Lent
Readings and Prayers

Practice Martin Luther's Prayer-form this Lent by following these steps:

Pray first thing in the morning and last thing at night.

First, say the 10 Commandments (provided on back).

Next, recite the Apostles' Creed (provided on back).

Read the prayer and lesson for the day (provided inside). When you read the Scriptures, really listen to the words. Reflect on their teachings, discover the brokenness presented in them, repent of the sins they remind you of and then give thanks to God for his loving forgiveness.

Rest in the Lord: "Be still and know that I am God" (Psalm 46:10a).

Continue with your day. As you work, let your thoughts be of God.

Lent Readings and Prayers

Conclude each prayer with: ... through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
