

To build a ride on the 8 inch gps

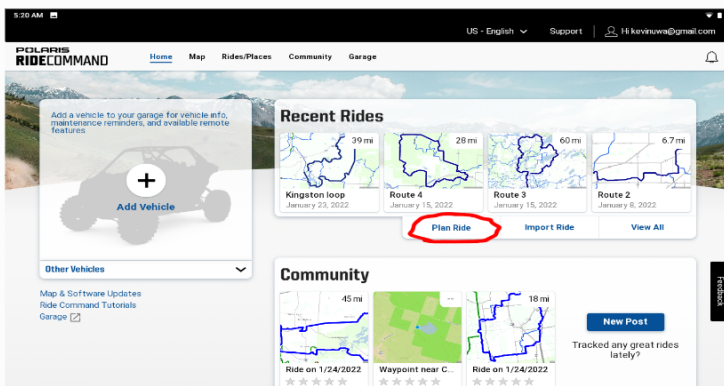

1. Connect the gps to wifi
2. Open the Polaris Ride Command website through Google Chrome

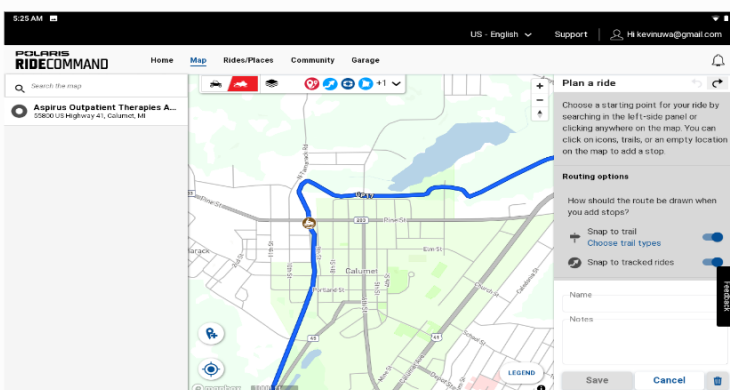

3. Sign into your Polaris Ride Command account on the website

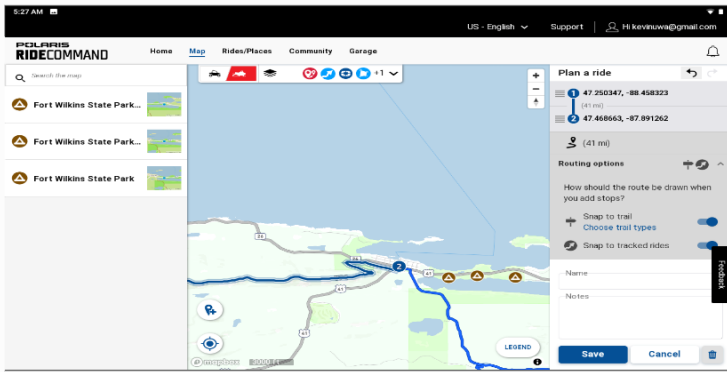

4. Select plan a ride

5. Tap on the map to select your starting point

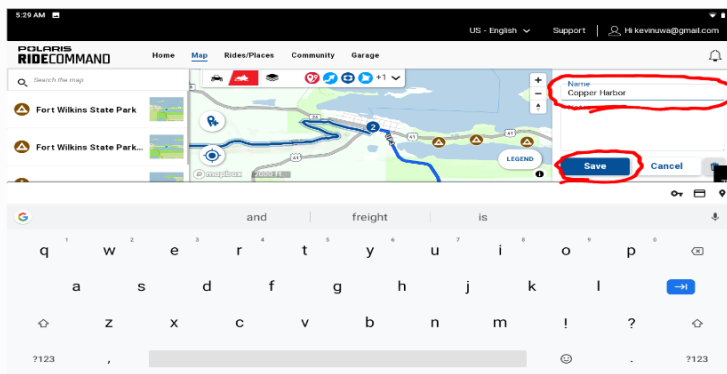

6. Tap on the map again to select your destination point

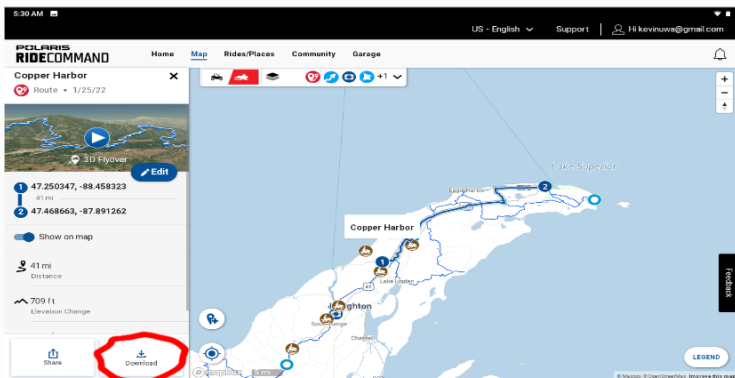

7. Add a name to your ride

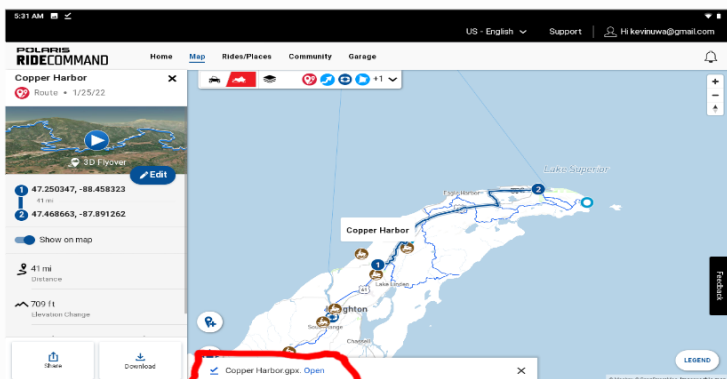

8. Select save

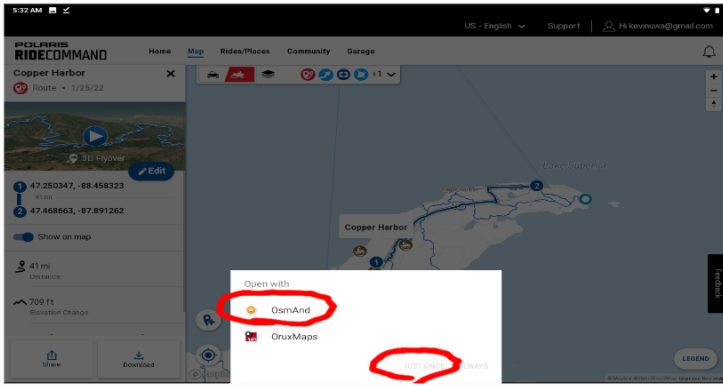

9. Select download on the ride you just saved

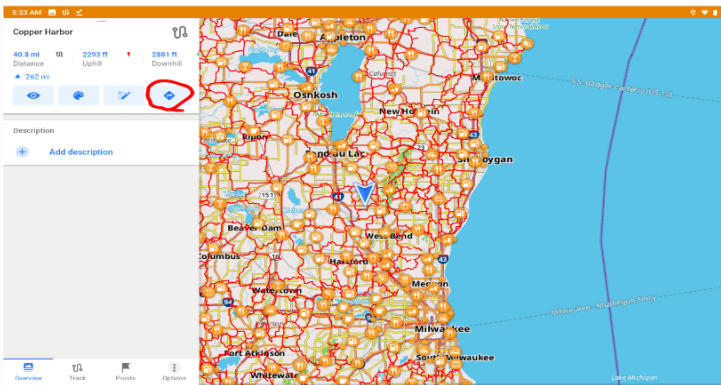

10. Once download is complete select open

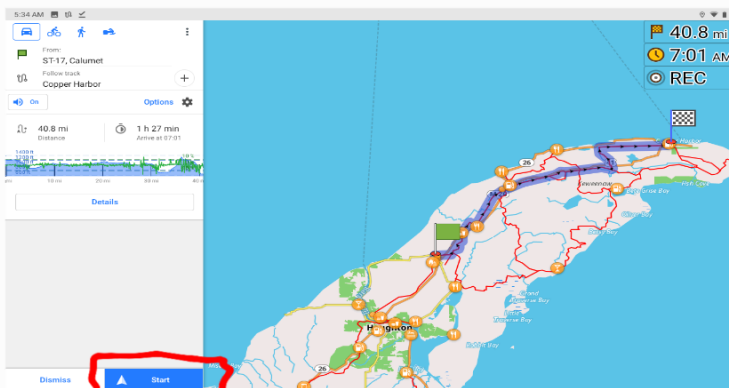

11. Open with OsmAnd just once

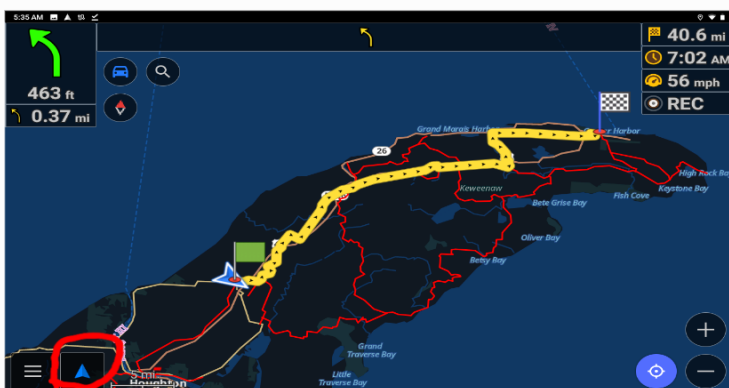

12. Select navigate

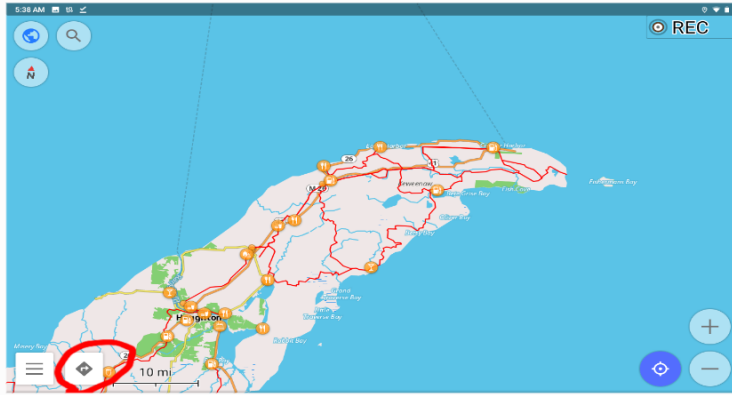

13. Select start

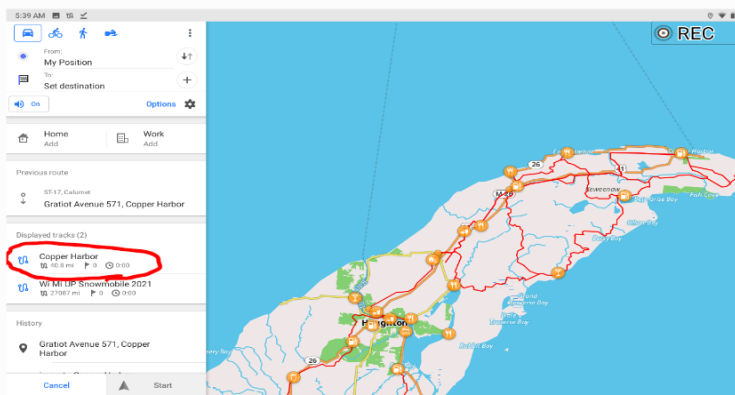

14. To stop the navigation select the bottom left navigation arrow then select dismiss

15. To reselect a past ride select the navigation icon in the bottom left

16. Find your past ride name and select it

17. All downloaded rides will be located in the import folder in the tracks menu

