

NSAC Board News

The NSAC Board is gearing up for their Spring board meeting at the end of the month. This year, the board will meet in person at the NSAC Office.

During this time, board members will meet our local auxiliaries.

Last month, the NSAC Board and the Department of Missionaries joined together and sent Rev. Betty Hutt and Rev. Lorraine Radice to Texas to visit with our auxiliaries in Houston and Austin. With success and interest in this visit, we will hopefully work together to plan visits with some of our other auxiliaries.

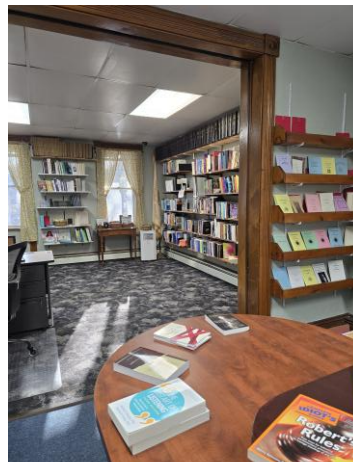

In honor of Gratitude, the NSAC Board would like to take a moment to express our heartfelt appreciation for the dedication and service of our auxiliaries. Your unwavering commitment to the principles of Spiritualism strengthens our community and furthers our shared mission. In recognition of your invaluable contributions, the NSAC Board has sent a special gesture of thanks as a token of our deep gratitude. May the fourth Sunday of March be a reminder of the power of unity, love, and appreciation that binds us all together.

From the NSAC Secretary

Thank you!! The NSAC Office and Bookstore are almost ready for the 2025 Lily Dale season. Each season, the office and bookstore see tens of thousands of people. This year, we have doubled the amount of space for the bookstore to four hundred (400) square feet, allowing more than a few people to browse at a time.
