A MESSAGE FROM CHORBISHOP ANTHONY

Dear Friends,

The month of November is a time when we celebrate many special observances. It is also the beginning of the new Liturgical Year for the Maronite Church.

Keep in mind that the Saints whom we honor are always ready to assist us with their prayers. It is they who stand before God and intercede for us still here on earth. We also remember the faithful departed souls who are in Purgatory and they rely on our prayers for them that they be granted entrance into Paradise. In spite of their temporary stay in Purgatory, they are able to pray for us as do the Saints in Heaven. Our prayers for them are very important as they will never cease to pray for us once they enter into the Kingdom of God.

Remember the Saints of God and ask for their prayers, especially for peace in the Middle East and the Holy Land. The world is in need of peace which can only come from God.

God love you.

Chorbishop Anthony Spinosa
