

Can you Guess?

Below are a number of Scottish words used around the 1700s (and probably after!). They all have something to do with food or cooking....except one.

Can you guess them all and find the odd one out?

The Answers!

Syboes - Spring Onions

Ashet - Oval/Large serving dish

Kebbuck - Whole round of cheese

Hogshead - Barrel usually holding ale

Sappy - Succulent

Mazers - Large drinking bowl

Collops - slices

Partan - Crabs

Bree - Cooking liquid

Parritch - Porridge

Farls - Quarters i.e cut into farls

Tatties - Potatoes

Neeps - Turnips

The one word that had nothing to do with food or cooking was GABERLUNZIES. They were registered beggars.