Advertising At The Priest

The Priest Theatre, a special venue in High Springs for more than 100 years makes a great place for businesses in the community to receive the benefits of advertising their company. The Priest is a building and establishment that has stood for strength and character for many years. It's a great time to join the many advertisers onscreen before the feature to help your business become more prosperous.

*"All our dreams can come true if we have the courage to pursue them."
- Walt Disney*
