O nata lux de lumine, Jesu redemptor saeculi, dignare clemens supplicum laudes preces que sumere Qui carne quondam contegi dignatus es pro perditis Nos membra confer effici tui beati corporis	O light born of light. Jesus redeemer of the world with loving kindness deign to receive suppliant praise and prayer. Thou who once deigned to be clothed in flesh for the sake of the lost, grant us to be members of thy blessed body.

Of the glorious Body telling, O my tongue, it's mysteries sing, And the Blood, all price excelling Which the world's eternal King, In a noble womb once dwelling Shed for the world's ransoming.	At the last great Supper lying Circled by his brethren's band, Meekly with the law complying, First he finished its command Then, immortal Food supplying, Gave himself with his own hand.
Given for us, descending, Of a virgin to proceed, Man with man in converse blending Scattered he the Gospel seed, Till his sojourn drew to ending, Which he closed in wondrous deed.	Word made Flesh, by word he maketh Very bread his Flesh to be; Man in wine Christ's Blood partaketh; And if senses fail to see, Faith alone the true heart waketh To behold the mystery.
	raditional Carol arranged by Philip WJ Stopford Eliza Gilkyson Arranged by Craig Hella Johnsor
