Denver's 2026 Election on November 3rd: Local Issues, Lasting Impacts

Denver voters will decide several important races and ballot questions on November 3rd, including a special City Council election. Voting information and ballot drop box locations are available at www.DenverVotes.org.

DENVER CITY COUNCIL AT-LARGE

Ten candidates are running to fill the vacancy created by Sarah Parady's resignation. Unlike Denver's 11 district representatives, at-large members represent the entire city. The winner will serve the remainder of Parady's term. The seat will be on the ballot again in April 2027.

CANDIDATES INCLUDE:

Jake Browne, Cynthia Diaz, Raymon Anthony Doane, Gabriel Konkle, Monica Martinez, Melissa Mejía, Alfredo Reyes, Julissa Soto, Whitney Traylor, and Jeff Walker.

DENVER

LOCAL BALLOT QUESTIONS:

Voters will also decide on:

- 2H – City Auditor: Clarifies the Auditor's authority to enforce wage and workplace laws.
- 2I – City Budget: Allows Denver to adopt a two-year budget process.
- 2J – Police & Fire: Updates Civil Service Commission rules governing hiring, management, and discipline of police and fire personnel.
- 2K – Xcel Energy: Approves a new 20-year utility franchise agreement.
- 311 – Foie Gras: Prohibits force-feeding birds and selling products derived from force-fed birds.
- 4A – Denver Public Schools: Increases property taxes by up to $44 million annually for educator pay and student programs.
- 7A – Passenger Rail: Establishes a 0.333% sales tax to help fund Front Range passenger rail service.

STATEWIDE ELECTIONS

Colorado voters will elect a new Governor, State Treasurer, Attorney General, Secretary of State, and Representatives to US Congress and the Colorado Legislature.

STATEWIDE BALLOT MEASURES

There are 14 statewide measures. The state's Blue Book provides explanations of each proposal, including arguments for and against. For more information, visit www.leg.colorado.gov/bluebook.

Second Annual Fiesta @ Federal Draws Big Crowds

Jefferson Park came alive with music, dance and neighborhood spirit on September 26th as the Federal Boulevard Business Improvement District (Jeff Park @ Federal) hosted Fiesta @ Federal.

Held along 25th Avenue and Eliot Street, the free, family-friendly celebration brought neighbors together in recognition of Hispanic Heritage Month.

The afternoon featured Latin-inspired music from the Talisman Quartet and colorful traditional dance performances by Folklórico de Colores. Local artisans, food vendors and activities added to the festive atmosphere, with crafts, games, face painting and a pet costume contest.

Fiesta @ Federal followed June's successful "Celebrate Jeff Park" block party, continuing the BID's efforts to strengthen neighborhood connections.

Jefferson Park Neighborhood Association (JPNA) sponsored both events this year.

Día de los Muertos Celebration Returns to Civic Center Park

Denver's Civic Center Park will come alive with color, music, and tradition on Saturday, October 24th, from 12 pm to 7 pm, for a free Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) celebration honoring loved ones who have passed.

Presented by Denver Botanic Gardens, the family-friendly event features traditional Mexican music and dance, colorful art installations, community altars, food trucks serving Mexican and Latin American cuisine, and a lively marketplace featuring local vendors and artisans.

Visitors are invited to contribute photographs, flowers, or personal messages to a community ofrenda (altar) honoring departed loved ones. A special sunset procession through the park begins at 6 pm bringing the community together in remembrance and celebration. Admission is free. For event details, visit CivicCenterPark.org

Little Machine Celebrates 11th Anniversary in October

Little Machine Beer celebrates its 11th anniversary on Friday, October 23rd with an evening of beer, music and festivities. The party kicks off with Power Hour from 7–8 pm followed by free beer from 8–9 pm. Balloon animals will be available from 7–9 pm. Satellite Pilot performs live from 8–10 pm. Jefferson Park Pet Spotlight: Woods

Meet Woods! This lovable French Bulldog turns 6 this month! Don't let his short legs fool you—he's FAST, especially when playing his favorite sport: nose soccer! You'll often spot him endlessly pushing his ball down the long driveway between the Rows on 25th.

Traditional walks? Not his thing, especially in the heat. One recent outing ended in exhaustion before the one-mile mark (photographic evidence included!). Woods prefers socializing at beer gardens, parks, parties, and his favorite destination—Safeway, where he insists on inspecting EVERY aisle. If you see Woods, say hello! He's never met a stranger!

Want to see your pet featured next month? Send us a couple photos and a brief description to newsletter@jeffersonpark.org. If your pet is featured in an upcoming issue, they'll receive a complimentary free exam at Urban Vet Care ($95 value)!

- Urban Vet Care is accepting new clients! Show this ad for $50 off your first visit (excludes retail, food & specialty services). Offer expires 12/31/26.
