Second Annual “Celebrate Jeff Park” Draws Big Crowd

The second annual Celebrate Jeff Park block party transformed 25th Avenue and Eliot Street into the neighborhood’s gathering place, drawing a packed crowd for an afternoon of music, local businesses, food, and community connections. With beautiful weather and nearly 40 vendors lining the street, residents turned out in force to celebrate everything that makes Jefferson Park special.

Hosted by the Federal Boulevard Business Improvement District (Jeff Park @ Federal), the event was made possible through the generous support of sponsors State Farm – Stephanie Spender, Urban Vet Care, PNC Bank, and the Jefferson Park Neighborhood Association (JPNA). For JPNA, the event marked its first major public appearance since becoming a Registered Neighborhood Organization. Our booth was busy throughout the day as residents stopped by to learn more about the association, pick up giveaways, and sign up to stay involved. The response was overwhelmingly positive, with many neighbors saying they were excited to finally have an active RNO where they could participate, volunteer, and help shape the future of Jefferson Park.

Live music from The Coveralls kept the energy high, creating the perfect soundtrack for a day filled with conversations, new connections, and neighborhood pride. If this year’s turnout was any indication, Celebrate Jeff Park has quickly become one of the community’s signature annual events.

Crosscurrents Festival Returns on July 11th

On Saturday, July 11th, Confluence Park transforms into a riverside celebration as the Crosscurrents Festival returns from 2–10 pm. This free, family-friendly event supports The Greenway Foundation’s work to protect and improve the South Platte River. Enjoy food trucks, craft beer, kids’ activities, disc golf, and whitewater adventures with Confluence Kayak.

Live music takes center stage with LA-based electronic duo Neil Frances headlining. Their sound blends indie pop, house, disco, funk, soul, and dance music. Local artists and DJs will perform throughout the day. With face painting, crafts, climbing walls, and more, Crosscurrents is summer fun for everyone. Learn more at crosscurrentsdenver.com.

Help Stock the DCAC Family Market

The Denver Children's Advocacy Center (DCAC) at 22nd & Federal supports children and families impacted by abuse, trauma, and violence. Through the DCAC Family Market, families can "shop" for free essentials such as food, hygiene products, diapers, cleaning supplies, and school supplies, alleviating stress during difficult times. Neighbors can help ensure families have access to the resources they need by donating requested items or making a financial contribution to support the Family Market.

Denver Launches Far Northwest Area Plan

Denver's Neighborhood Planning Initiative is kicking off the Far Northwest Area Plan, a long-term effort to help shape the future of Berkeley, Regis/Inspiration Point, Sloan's Lake, and West Highland. The plan will guide city decisions over the next 20 years on topics including land use, housing, transportation, and parks. Residents, business owners, and community organizations are encouraged to participate and help create a shared vision for these neighborhoods. The planning process is underway with a community survey and public engagement opportunities.

Community members can learn more, sign up for updates, and participate in future surveys and meetings at www.denvergov.org/farnorthwestplan.

Summer in Jeff Park: From Stadium Energy to Neighborhood Spots

Empower Field hosted two major June events, beginning with the Red Bull Soapbox Race. Closing out the month, Usher and Chris Brown launched the North American leg of The R&B Tour, delivering a stadium-sized set of hits.

On July 1st, Chili Verde hosts a happy hour for Sloan's Lake and Jefferson Park neighbors from 5–7 PM. Chili Verde brings authentic cuisine from Puebla, Mexico, to Federal Boulevard, serving acclaimed mole dishes, pozole, margaritas, and regional specialties. Meet up on the back patio! www.chiliverdedenver.com

Good Practice just announced that their July Workshops are now live! Beside their regular drop-in Art Café hours, they have a seriously packed month with 3-4 workshops every week. Highlights include two 4-week-long courses in oil pastels and crocheting. Full schedule at www.goodpractice.co

A sweet new addition is coming to the neighborhood. Crispy Cones is preparing to open in the former Petunia Bakeshop space on West 23rd Avenue. The growing dessert franchise is known for its warm, chimney-style pastry cones filled with soft-serve ice cream and customizable toppings. Signage is already up at the location, but an official opening date has not yet been announced. Watch future editions of the Jefferson Park Post for updates and opening details.

Ephemeral Tap & Bottle welcomes Enegren Brewing Company as its feature for July, highlighting the California brewery's acclaimed German-style lagers. The month also includes a Bingo Tournament and beer release on July 10th, Oktoberfest in July on July 18th with German food and a stein-hoisting competition, and live music from Eloise Smith on July 21st.

Jefferson Park Pet Spotlight: Lucky

Lucky is a six-year-old Border Collie who has spent her whole life in Jefferson Park. She loves Frisbees, cheese, chasing geese, and greeting everyone she meets with her signature full-body butt wiggle. Lucky loves to “work,” which mostly means playing fetch, so you’ll see her around the neighborhood at least 3x a day—usually at the park or the stadium. Smart, vocal, and full of personality, she’s a familiar face around the neighborhood. When she’s off duty, she can often be found napping in her bed by the front door.

Want to see your pet featured next month? Send us a couple photos and a brief description to newsletter@jeffersonpark.org. If your pet is featured in an upcoming issue, they’ll receive a complimentary free exam at Urban Vet Care ($95 value)!

- Urban Vet Care is accepting new clients! Show this ad for $50 off your first visit (excludes retail, food & specialty services). Offer expires 9/30/26.
