2026-27 Denver Broncos Schedule Released

HOME SLATE HIGHLIGHTED BY EARLY PRIME TIME GAMES AND CHRISTMAS DAY

The Denver Broncos open their 2026 home schedule with a Week 2 rematch against the Jacksonville Jaguars, the only team to beat them at home last season. A Week 3 Sunday night game brings Matthew Stafford and the Los Angeles Rams to Denver. After a road-heavy October, the defending champion Seattle Seahawks visit in Week 6. Division games against the Kansas City Chiefs and Las Vegas Raiders follow. Late-season matchups include the Buffalo Bills on Christmas and a Week 18 finale versus the Los Angeles Chargers.

Block Party Returns on June 6th!

Following a successful debut, “Celebrate Jeff Park” returns for its second year. This free event is presented by Jeff Park @ Federal—the Federal Boulevard Business Improvement District—which also puts on “Fiesta @ Federal” and ongoing small business activations.

Join the celebration on Saturday, June 6th from 11 am – 4 pm along 25th Avenue between Federal Boulevard and Eliot Street. The event features vendors, food, activities, and live music from The Coveralls.

This year’s sponsors include State Farm, PNC Bank, Urban Vet Care and Jefferson Park Neighborhood Association (JPNA). Jeff Park @ Federal Business Improvement District is proud to support the small businesses and neighbors of Jefferson Park.

Move Smarter with Bike to Work Day and Shift2

Denver residents have two great opportunities to rethink their commute this June. Bike to Work Day returns Wednesday, June 24th inviting residents to pledge to ride at www.BikeToWorkDay.co, visit breakfast stations for free coffee and swag, and join group rides throughout the city.

Residents can also participate in a new program called Shift2, which encourages people to replace two solo driving trips each week with biking, transit, walking, scootering, or carpooling.

Participants who track trips are entered into monthly raffles for local business gift cards. Learn more and sign up at www.bit.ly/shift2-citywide.

Cherry Creek Arts Festival Returns for 35th Anniversary

The Cherry Creek Arts Festival returns July 3-5, 2026, transforming Cherry Creek North into a vibrant celebration of creativity.

July 3-5 2026

With 250 juried artists, live music, local food, and family-friendly activities, it's a summer tradition that brings the community together. This year's featured poster, "Well Wishes and Dirty Dishes" by Bennett, captures the festival's spirit beautifully. Enjoy an exclusive preview on July 2 or upgrade to a VIP experience to support arts education in Colorado. Whether you're an art collector or casual browser, the festival offers inspiration on every corner. Don't miss Denver's favorite art weekend!

Summer in Jeff Park: From Stadium Energy to Neighborhood Spots

Concert season at Empower Field at Mile High kicks off in high gear with back-to-back shows featuring Morgan Wallen. Still to come: 5 more blockbuster shows, complemented by a full slate of other community gatherings across Jefferson Park.

On June 3rd, The Federal Bar & Grill hosts a happy hour for Sloan's Lake and Jefferson Park neighbors from 5–7 PM. Known for its scratch kitchen, 20 beers on tap, and a fun cocktail menu, The Fed also has extensive gluten free options. Meet up on the back patio! www.thefedbar.com

Good Practice has been warmly received in the neighborhood, and they've just announced their June schedule. Besides their regular drop-in Art Café hours, you can also sign up for workshops like Everyday Lettering, Creative Accountability, Collage Bouquets and more. Full schedule at www.goodpractice.co

The Red Bull Soapbox Race returns to Empower Field on June 13th. The event features non-motorized carts racing down a custom course that consists of turns, jumps, and obstacles. Teams of up to 5 members will perform a skit before propelling their cart down the course. Their driver will navigate obstacles in hopes of logging the fastest times. Creative themes will be on display from a variety of unique homemade soapbox carts. Gates open at 11am and the free event starts at 12pm. ## Jefferson Park Pet Spotlight: Pilot

Pilot is a Nova Scotia Duck Tolling Retriever with a big personality and an even bigger social calendar. She absolutely loves mixing with the locals around Jefferson Park and can often be found making friends at neighborhood favorites like Ephemeral Rotating Taproom, Little Machine Beer, and Zuni Street Brewing Company. She's endlessly friendly, always ready for patio hangs, and considers every stranger a future best friend. Whether she's soaking up attention at a brewery or trotting through the neighborhood with her signature smile, Pilot brings a lot of joy wherever she goes.

HERE ARE SOME IDEAS!

Bites & Brews in the Neighborhood

Featuring Brett Williams from Little Machine

After almost 11 years of booking food trucks, Little Machine is excited to announce our own food truck: Sizzle Machine. We believe the food truck/brewery experience is part of the fabric of both our business and Denver culture as a whole. Now we can control the quality, consistency and schedule of the food at Little Machine. As we dial in operations, we'll be featuring rotating specials and, don't worry, $1 wings on Wednesdays (and $4 beers) haven't gone anywhere. We hope you like smash burgers, wings and apps as much as we do!
