CATHOLIC
CHARITIES

When Families come to us seeking assistance, it's because of you that we're able to provide them with hope for a brighter future. That's why your efforts towards this year's St Joseph's Table is so valuable and incredibly meaningful.

Throughout the Dioceses of Fresno, the St Joseph's table collection yield over 10 tons of food that was donated to Catholic Charities and is now being distributed to those less fortunate .

The legends from the Middle Ages, Sicilians remembered their gratitude to St Joseph's intercession after rain came down during a prolonged drought and famine. After the harvest, they prepared a table with special foods to honor St Joseph sharing their food with the poor and distributing the leftovers to those in need.

The theme of this story has many parallels with the darkness of the COVID-19 pandemic and the light we are beginning to see today in recovery from the mental, physical, spiritual and economic consequences it caused for so many.

Thank you for continuing the tradition of celebrating St Joseph's table and for making our harvest here at Catholic Charities possible for those most vulnerable.

"Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine , you did for me." Matthew: 25:40
