

And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

A Prayer for the Feast of the Epiphany

I wonder sometimes
 If one of the stars that lit Abraham's night
 Was the one that led the Magi to Jesus.
 A dark canvas speckled by the most generous brush—
 What an improbable promise to an old man.
 But our God has never been daunted by the unlikely, the impossible.
 What a sight for the Magi, too,
 A baby resting on hay, his cries mingled with braying and bleating.
 I like to think they heard in those everyday sounds a holy chorus,
 Saw in that noisy tableau a Creator serenaded by His creation,
 All of it embodied, enfleshed—
 All of it good.

And when we've left our gifts for this implausible King,
 May we, like the Magi, go home by another way—
 Having encountered the holy,
 May we protect it, guard it,
 Trail its light behind us wherever we go.
 A sacred arc transposed from heaven to earth,
 May we ourselves become the star,
 Leading the way to Emmanuel.
 Amen.
