

Natural Allergy Solutions

For the past 15 years, we have worked with so many individuals in relieving symptoms of allergies and ailments using Bioenergetic Techniques. This month we will further explore what is Bioenergetic, what it does and how it can help you to restore your health.

First, let's take a closer look into Bioenergetic. Bioenergetics is the study of the transformation of energy in living organisms. It focuses on how cells transform energy often by producing, storing, and consuming Adenosine Triphosphate (ATP), which is the main "energy currency" for organisms. Life is dependent on energy transformation reactions. The activity to harness energy from a variety of metabolic pathways is a property of cell living organism. It is needed so that it can perform its biological work.

What is Bioenergetic techniques? Bioenergetic Assessment combines the wisdom of traditional Chinese medicine, biofeedback, and modern technology to eavesdrop on the communication system of your body to find out what it needs to heal. Through comprehensive testing techniques, we can identify stresses in the body and bring your body into balance by removing all the stressors. We will work in achieving optimum health and wellness. So this innovative testing allows us to learn about how your body is functioning, what nutrients are lacking and what toxins or ailments are creating issues within your body. This allows us to apply natural principles and determine specific remedies that you would benefit from. Learning this information about your health can help you make wiser and better health decisions.

Do you know that according to the World Health organization (WHO) 90% of all illness is directly related to stress? The American Medical Association has noted that stress was the basic cause of more than 60 percent of all human illness and disease. Every week, over 100 million North Americans suffer some kind of stress related symptoms for which they take medication. An astonishing one of every three North Americans are affected by food or environmental sensitivities of one kind or another.

Bioenergetics is useful for individuals dealing with all sorts of symptoms such as, allergies, arthritis, gout, headaches, migraines, digestive disorders, memory loss, fatigue, hemorrhoids, constipation, diarrhea, acnes, rashes, learning disabilities, nightly urination, restless sleep, insomnia, bath breath, body odor, phobias, anxiety, depression, mood swings, weight gain and other chronic health conditions.
