READINGS Isaiah 55:1-5   Romans 9: 1-5   Matthew 14:13-21

Prayer for the week          Almighty Lord and everlasting God,          we beseech you to direct, sanctify and          govern          both our hearts and bodies          in the ways of your laws          and the works of your commandments;          that through your most mighty          protection, both here and ever,          we may be preserved in body and soul;          through our Lord and Saviour Jesus          Christ,          who is alive and reigns with you,          in the unity of the Holy Spirit,          one God, now and for ever.          Amen	Thought for the week          We have had a heart warming response to the sale          of tickets for our Quiz night (tonight as I type).          We have got lots of ideas in the pipeline for          fundraising ideas.          Our true mission is to spread the word of God in the          parish.          Somehow we are trying to undertake both of these          tasks.          I have muddled the readings set for this week and          next week preparing the services on the technology          we are using. Hopefully by Sunday I will have          sorted that out.          It puts a whole new dimension on leading worship          trying to be adept with computers etc.          God made each of us uniquely –please can we all          share our skills in the name of the Lord          Jo
