Readings Amos 7;7-15. Ephesians 1;3-14 Mark 6:14-29

Prayer For the week	Thought for the Week.
Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen	Our readings today show the personal cost to folk of old in proclaiming the Word of God. Amos "falls out" with King, prophets and friends. John the Baptist is executed by King Herod for proclaiming God's values. Our thoughts last week were to think about how we listen to God and should and could pick up the opportunity of spreading the Word and growing the Kingdom. Today we must not be put off that we may be unpopular and it might cost both money and friendships -but the one true friend of lasting value is Jesus Christ our Lord. Jo

Thursday 29th July To be held at "The Glen " Doors 6.30pm Christ Church Summer Quiz.
Meal at 7, Quiz to follow. Bar and raffle. Prizes needed please. Maximum of 4 members in each team.
Tickets (now available) £10 each.

Thanks to our hard-working social Committee -There will be two fund raising events each month.
Hopefully a Car Boot Sale in August and some evening talks yet to be arranged. The only definite date that I currently know is Saturday 4th September when we will have a Bells and Brass concert at Christ Church.

We will hold a Pet Service in August, a service hopefully outdoors at St Adamnan's in September (maybe 19th) and maybe even a "sermon on the Mount"

Tourists. /Welcome Centre Tourists are returning to the Island. Welcome Centre functions have returned to our building. It would be good to have stewards to cover any time folk can give. Rota available in the back of the church. Thanks to John and Kathy for stepping in on Tuesdays. Trams are not going to be running on Thursdays and Mondays but that might mean tourists come to other events-we shall see.....

St Christopher's –. Please continue to put your donations in the box at the back of the church. All long-life food and cooking goods are much appreciated as are toiletries etc.
