Readings 13th Genesis 50 15-21 Romans14: 1-12 Matthew 18:21-35
20th this service will be on a separate sheet as it will be outside or inside St Adamnan's

Prayer for the 13th Almighty God, whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence: grant that, with pure hearts and constant wills, we may worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen	Thought for the Week We are reminded in today's readings how much God will forgive us if we acknowledge our mistakes. That leads us to forgiving others as God has forgiven us and living in love and avoiding divisions which cause distress and disharmony and can separate us from the love of God . Sunday 20th at 10.30 we shall worship where generations have gone before us at St Adamnan's and hopefully enjoy the fresh air of creation as we consider God's love for us. The 13th is Battle of Britain Sunday when we give thanks for all who gave their lives for us. Jo
