Readings Jeremiah 11:18-20, James 3:13-4 3,7,8 Mark 9; 30-37

Prayer For the week O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen	Thought for the Week. Our readings today help us to remember the wisdom of being a servant. As the Island experiences the General Election, we pray that those elected will work in harmony one with another for the good of the Island and it's people, with no one person feeling, or purporting, to be greater than the other. Jesus had a different view, from even His disciples, of greatness and did not want to be in the spotlight of fame. He was the Servant King who came from heaven and changed the lives of those who believe and trust in Him Jo
