Dee Ebel

Dee was born and raised an only child in Portland, Oregon where she attended Business School. She met and married her husband there in 1966.

She worked in the legal field in Portland before they moved to Sacramento. There she was employed as a secretary to Lieutenant Governor Ed Reinecke in the State Capitol. Her husband, Sterling worked as a counselor in the Athletic Department at California State University Sacramento.

When they retired in 1990, they visited Brookings on the advice of some friends. They found property and built a house on seven and a half acres where they decided to spend their retirement years. Sterling passed away in 2013.

Dee says she loves Bridge, having learned Goren in her twenties. She has been in refreshing Standard American classes in the Activity Center for two years. She enjoys classical music, having sung in several Chorales touring Europe. Dee's other hobbies include weaving flat ware, knitting, and working wooden jigsaw puzzles.

The club is fortunate to have Dee as a member.
