

#10 Your Heart / Part One

Can you hear your heart today
And what it's trying to convey
About the world in which we live
That's mostly take and rarely give?

You might want to ask yourself
About the state of your mental health.
Is it strong and healthy and clean and pure?
And do you think you can endure

The pain you bring upon yourself
When your main worry is of your wealth?
You take that pain off of your mind
When you give to others of your time.

To focus upon the things you need
Is only vanity and selfish greed,
And that's not the way you are to think.
It often cause one to drink

To escape or drown that pain inside
From which we all do try to hide.
We try to conquer it on our own
But we all reap what we have sown!

If we don't live within the rules
And pay attention to all the tools
Our Father gave us in His Good Book
Because we neglect to even look!

The world and all its wisdom teaches.
But don't even listen to what it preaches
Cause it's too hard to live that way
And God WILL forgive your sins today.

But that's only half true and I'll tell you why.
The Devil wants the whole world to fry.
When you leave out repentance, which is a condition
To make it to heaven, DEFY the Son of Perdition!

#10 Your Heart / Part One

He's deceived the whole world; some time it took
To even pervert some versions of the "Good Book."
He's taken out words of encouragement
So we'll give up when our energy is spent.

He'll tell us to quit...and commit suicide,
And that God is not there in which to confide...
You're problem's too big and nobody cares.
To take your own life he constantly dares!

He does it in ways that people know...
Drugs, alcohol, cigarettes, and lack of dough.
But in subtle ways too...he is the master!
In words that are said; maybe even from our pastor!

The Devil is crafty, he knows how to destroy.
And he doesn't care which method he opts to deploy.
All words have power; they'll bring life or death.
If they're bad enough you may even try crystal meth!

You've heard "Sticks & stones may break my bones...
But names can never hurt me!"
Just listen to all the names you hear in your homes.
Do they help you become "All you can be?"

To find the truth there's only one source,
And that's the Holy Spirit...of course,
Who talks to us when we want to find
How to obtain our peace of mind. ``

Our reference guide for all that we hear
Is His Bible which we should keep open and near
To search for the truth written from Him up above
Whose number one rule is to Love, Love, Love, Love!
