

#123 I KNOW God (STILL) Loves Me

Thank God! I KNOW I'm (still) Loved.

I no longer feel pushed and shoved.

There is this glorious energy ready and willing.

Clarity given why my joyful dreams I was actually killing!

I love sharing words and songs so very much.

My current way of a connecting touch

On a much deeper level than just through your eyes, ears and skin.

The power of OPTIMISM will tune up every atom within.

The scope of imagination is far beyond any barrier.

The creative power words: "Let there be" is certainly a carrier.

Words vibrate out and organize despite complexity and size.

ASK and you SHALL receive" is Spirit that nature will then harmonize.

"Good" lives in my heart and lives to be shared.

There is no worry of "mistakes" of which to be scared.

Choices just set WHAT I may learn and HOW to play

Knowing serendipity appears, when I'm looking, every single day.

I only need to focus and set my sights on joy.

God is Creator, I AM the vehicle and the Universe my toy!

Every time I awake from a peaceful rest and even every blink

I observe MY present reality of how I really think.

So NOW to think THIS is where I WANT to be?

Through all I saw as hardships, I finally see I'm free

Of worrying and giving ANY power to what others (MIGHT) think of me

Giving myself room to bloom and share my GIFTS for all eternity.

#123 I KNOW God (STILL) Loves Me

I set my intentions high and this is what “LIGHT” shall be emitted.
I’ll stay happy and thankful in this present present – that I’m quick-
Witted

And am guided so often to give words of life and hope
To troubled souls thinking they’re drowning like; “Raise your periscope!

You’re in a self-created vessel submerged and lost in confusion.
Everything you see and experience is just your flow’s current illusion.
It’s a stormy sea of brainwashing with condemnation and negativity.
So friend, just re-boot & re-program your paradigm w/ joyous Creativity.

Say; “Let there be” to whatever dreams you desire.

LOVE is everywhere to help you raise your sights higher.

Thoughts lead to actions - usually VERBALLY 1st, so when you’re wise

In what you SAY.

No matter where you’re at today, your best is NOW

With EVEN BETTER ON THE WAY !
