

#124 It Happened When I Decided ((Garden of Eden)

It happened faster than a blink of my eye.

The moment I decided I no longer had to try

To MAKE my dreams come true exactly as imagined ... and TODAY.

When my mind slowed down to neutral & parked. THIS is what I finally Heard Spirit say.

“The work has ended; your dreams have been made known.

Now, there’s a plan already in progress with only details to hone.”

It was amazing how quickly I’d put stumbling blocks in my way

By my negative thoughts I’d unwittingly harbor and worse, what I’d say.

I had it all backwards as most people still do.

I’d sweat all the details and worry, then my attitude would turn blue.

I thought I had to keep it all together all by myself and by force.

Be the pilot & co-pilot, air traffic controller and maintenance man too,

Of course.

All that did was put my big nose where it didn’t belong.

I thought that being a man meant I had to be real strong.

Being an instructor I got used to running the whole show

But micro-managing is God’s job. I’m just the pilot. I didn’t know.

Now that I have the rolls switched back in proper WORKING order

All I do is AIM my dream and let God be my manager and porter.

Now here’s the best part, my inward blues turned to violet,

The color of Kingship – when I “Turned on” my “Auto-pilot!”

The reason the details are no longer my FOCUS and “Home Port”

Is that I haven’t yet decided WHICH beautiful creative form to court.

The sensuous WOMANLY kind is definitely highest on my list

With only making music topping it, & then probably only till I get kissed!!!

Then it won’t be limited to my pen or voice or piano and guitar

The music I’ll be making will somehow be WAY BETTER by far.

She’ll have musical skills to harmonize on instruments to me yet unknown,

And looks that invite my cells to synchronize with hers. Right down to

The merry bone!

#124 It Happened When I Decided (Garden of Eden)

Together we'll create venues that bring people Joy
Through music, art and service. All will be our ploy.
Life will then enthusiastically show it's very BEST to all
When we know how to stay positive and "Life" becomes a "Ball!"

And not only the party kind where laughter and dancing take place,
But maybe picture this point or sphere growing endlessly in what we call space.
Exponentially faster in every direction. No corners or pits to get trapped in Like religious fear tactics of an eternal torture because THEY say you sin.

No obstacles to stop it and IT IS the creative process in motion.
So now I've made my choice to grow Love here right next to the ocean
Where INVISIBLE FORCES are stronger and DEEP CHANGES the norm here.
Ones that HEAL the body, FREE the spirit and rid the soul from FEAR!

Meaning the Spirit of Life and Love has only more of itself to share
And there is no place of death ( even in THEIR Hell ) where God's Spirit
STOPS TO CARE!

The River of LIFE flows EVERYWHERE with 12 trees from which to be Feedin'.

Unlimited fruit – God's GRACE, PEACE & LOVE. I'm already IN

"My Garden of Eden!"
