

#2 ROSE'S VALENTINE POEM

Today's the day when we all hope
That there is someone out there
Who loves us as we are within our scope
And tells us that they care.

Valentine's Day should be like all the rest
When our love for one another shows.
We'll try to give our very best;
So each day our love surely grows.

For every day is very special, that's easy to see
And should not be taken lightly.
Stuck in our personal problems we should not be,
Then our love for others will shine through brightly.

Now let me focus on my love for you.
Each day it gets much stronger.
When love is shared between us two
It will last that much longer.

We surely know that when we give
Ourselves to one another
We find the reason that we live:
To love our friends and every brother.

You are my girl, my only one.
I thank God you came along.
My life is now so filled fun
And to a family we both belong.

My hope for you is that you know
With every passing day,
My love for you will surely grow
And in my heart you'll always stay.

No matter what you say or where you go
This fact will still be true
That every day you're sure to know
That our love for each other grew.

Stay with this thought my dear
Because you are so fine,
And to me pooker, please stay near
My sweet baby Valentine!
