

#36 Spiritual Oneness

The Bible teaches that marriage is Gods' most intimate way
To show His children what True Love is: submission day to day
The husband to his head, who is Christ, His actions should be holy.
The wife, her head is her husband...but this in no way makes her lowly.

A woman's need is of security...as Christ has given His Word
To His church, His dowered bride, through the prophecies it has heard.
A man's need is of a loving reverence, like God requires of us all
To know who holds the keys to life. We all must answer His call.

The husband is not anything unless he gives his all
Which is his life, like Christ did for His bride, after mans' garden fall.
Christ, the Head, had to pay for sin to save the weaker vessel
So when testing time is over and done, for eternity they will nestle.

My problem is that I don't know exactly how to give
To my sweet wife and confidant what she needs most to live
As God would want her in her role as Queen unto her King
While she shows committed effort, like she said she would, when she put on That ring.

When one gets married they offer themselves as a living sacrifice
To their partners which our all-knowing God provided as a teacher and a vice
So we could learn how hard it is to truly learn His ways
As we keep diligently seeking how Love will overcome our daze.

The Law was our schoolmaster...but now we can better understand GRACE!
It showed how man can never measure up to finding that perfect place
Where we will not fail to show perfect submission to the Holy ways of Love
Until the Kingdom of God comes upon us and we love as He does above!

That day won't get here until Christ personally guides our spirits, but until that Day arrives,

We've been given the gift to follow the path if we will open up our eyes
And SEE The Way, The Truth, and The Life which is Jesus living in us
Then He will show us our mistakes when we forget to trust!

So since Christ lives in both of us, it's together we're to follow
The pattern He set before us, so in our flesh we will not wallow
As we learn to live in the Spirit of Faith and Hope, and Joy, and Love
Then we'll function as one Holy body, like the bride and our husbandman
Above.
