

#46 My Wife's 42nd

Today my wife turns 42

So out came this poem...right on cue.

And it's going to be like I promised just last week;

One that encourage us to stand cheek to cheek!

I thank the Lord He sent her my way

And that our love for each other grows day to day

As we learn through experience the skills we need

While we listen to Jesus and let Him lead.

I thank the Lord He has saved us both

Because now we're both uplifted by our spiritual growth;

And our marriage becomes a witness to our neighbors and friends

As they see Gods' love and commitment and blessings He sends.

Her eyes now sparkle like the stars above.

When we meet her smile tells me how much we're in Love.

How she's happy to see me like I'm her knight in shining armor.

Makes me feel like she's my homestead and I am the farmer.

I enjoy the opportunity to till the ground and plant the seeds.

The hard part is trying to keep out the weeds;

Or at least to keep them in check so the crop will still grow.

What I have to remember is that I'll reap what I sow!

The Lord tells me to treat her with tender loving care,

But so far the job I've done I'd rate as only fair.

I thank God that Love covers a multitude of sins

And she's happy to be with me when each new day begins!

Thank you Jesus for her warm loving heart;

And help me to remember to keep the horse in front of the cart.

That means since I'm to lead and power the action

I must make sure there's a strong and constant attraction

For her to follow my lead down the row through the field.

I thank God we both believe that our marriage is sealed

With your approval that we were meant for each other.

I couldn't ask for a better woman to be our child's mother!
