

#49 Heaven Is Whatever You Make It?

A friend of mine told me the other day
That Heaven is whatever you make it.
But I had to correct him and speak out to say
Heaven is what Heaven is and you'll have to leave it or take it.

By his pronouncement of this unbackable view
It just showed his hardened heart
By not believing God when He said all things will be new
Including Heaven and Earth when eternity will start.

He gets his wisdom from the created beings
That God Himself has made
Who raise themselves up as wise men and kings.
But eventually their influence will fade

To another lost soul that thinks up some crap
Which cannot be found to be a fact
And lulls the lost sheep into taking a nap
So not to hear when someone tells them the truth that's lacked.

The Bible is true and is found to be sure.
It's the very word of God Himself.
God has given man's history and most thankfully the cure;
Which is faith in the Savior, which then brings mental health?

There are over 3,000 prophecies in the Bible and most have already
Come true
And almost one third of the Bible is prophetic;
And the ones that haven't yet are just waiting for their cue
Because the word of God is kinetic.

It's God's living Word, Christ Jesus in person
And He states: for most people that fact won't be believed.
Unfortunately, their idea of Heaven will definitely worsen
When they're on the outside because they were deceived.

#49 Heaven Is Whatever You Make It?

My friend said, "Keep your mind open, and don't get stuck on one view"
But your belief doesn't make a fact change.

When that guy doing acid believed he could fly, out the window he flew.
Unfortunately, 10 stories was way out of his range!

Or the guy who thought he could drink heavy and still drive home.

The truth is that was not the fact

Because what happened was obvious, like my intent in this poem,
His LIFE ENDED when that BIG TREE he smacked!

I hope, my friend, that you take your own advice

And keep your mind open while you search for God's truths.

God promises He'll show you it once, twice, and if need be...thrice.

But He'll still give you your choice - Heaven's freedom...or Hell's noose!
