

#69 What the Hell!

Again, today crap hit the fan.
I just got up to seek your plan.
Got stabbed in the heart, it hurt like hell.
I felt like quitting, and then you tell

Me right on time by my radio.
Felt like showing vengeance...but you said NO!
A different station than the normal one.
I thank you that I don't own a gun!

Rom. 12:19

I might have used it on myself
Had you not brought my mind back to mental health.
It'd have been the easy way out to end this day
But again you chose to show me your way.

So many words that fill my head
That could never come out if I were dead.
But still it seems they fall on deaf ears
Since they've been coming out for over 13 years!

I know they're really for my own good

Because only I take them to heart...maybe I should
Just write them down in a diary
So only you and I'd be the ones who see

The violent struggle between light and dark.
But my character is like my Chihuahua's, I need to bark
At the things I see that I don't like.
Feel like I'm just putting my finger in the hole in the dike

Trying to hold back the flood I fear
That could destroy the ones I love so dear.
But here is where I've got it wrong...
It's you who's built the dam so strong

#69 What the Hell!

But allows some cleansed water to filter through

To see how I'd react and what I'd do.

Instead of letting this pure water wash my soul,
I misinterpret its purpose and it takes a great toll

On the energy you provide me new every morn.

Lam.3:21-22

I feel like your prophet that needs to warn

My wife and family and whatever friend

Will listen to the message that we're near the end

Of this evil age where mankind won't see

1 John 2:9

That in your sheepfold is the only safe place to be.

I see the signs you told me to look out for.

Matt.24

It's time to enter your ark before you close the door.

Gen.7:16

You promised never again to destroy the world with a flood.

Gen.9:11

Put a rainbow in the sky and promised to save all with your blood

Gen. 9:13

To those who believe in our Messiah - your Son

That pray for the redemption of all souls and teach others - it's been Done!

John 3:16

Those who still walk in darkness - picture old testament Israel

Don't give hope to the lost world - they preach eternal fire of Hell.

James 1:20, 3:6, 3:10

Like the threat of the "new way" Jesus taught, today's false church lives

In pride

And seeks to kill and destroy all who aren't on their side.

James 3:8-10

Their understanding is still waning,

That we're in the days of the latter raining.

Agape love in their hearts is still darkened.

1 John

To our command to love all - they haven't harkened.

2 John: 6, 9

#69 What the Hell!

I've been told these poems go on way too long.

But people, listen! You've got to be strong

And not close your mind and ears because you're lazy and weak.

Remember, as your power fades - His is hitting its peak! 2 Cor. 12:9

So I pray today's the day God does in you His thing 1Cor. 2:10

So you along with me will be truly able to sing 1 John 2:2

The praises of Jesus' finished work on the cross John 17:4 , 1Cor. 2:14

And the white sepluchre over your true heart of gold got cleansed of

More dross!
