Hola Bienvenidos!!

Friends, welcome to La Hacienda 101. Haciendas were a system of distributing land through grants that date back to the early 1500's in Regional Mexico. Haciendas, usually the largest structure on the land grant, were the hub of activity in rural areas. Often large gatherings of locals would come to the Hacienda to celebrate food, drink and the joys of life.

We have honoured the traditions of the authentic Mexican cuisine that includes influences from the Mesoamericans (dating back as far as 7000BC), including the Maya, Aztec, Toltec, numerous other indigenous tribes, the Spanish and the French.

We also pay tribute to the "Tejanos" from across the border to the north with some delicious Tex-Mex favourites. We hope you enjoy your dining adventure at La Hacienda 101 as much as we enjoy preparing these dishes in the time-honoured traditions.
