2015
The Mayor's Award
Ms. Mable Ross

God blesses all of his children with their own special gifts to make their journey through life a little bit easier. As such, Mable Ross certainly holds the gift of his anointing power within the palms of her hands. The Lord has blessed her to use these hands to bring joy and beauty to the masses as a cosmetologist and a musician.

Mable Sumler Ross, a native Cantonian, is the oldest daughter of eight children born to L.V. and Ora Sumler. She grew up in the Canton Community and is a graduate of Canton High School and received further education at Hinds Community College. But, Mable desired to do more with her life and provide more for her family, so she set forth on a new venture and received a license in Cosmetology from the Shirley Little Academy of Beauty. Ms. Ross even moved a little higher in the cosmetology ranks by becoming a licensed instructor and a pivot point educator while in Nashville, Tennessee.

Although, happy with her accomplishments, there was still more that Mable wanted to do. Since childhood, she had been interested in playing the piano but never pursued her wish. Knowing her heart's desire, God intervened and placed Rev. Eugene Rivers in her heart's desire at the right time. Rev. Rivers would become her first music instructor and tutored her in a total of thirteen (13) sessions. Ms. Ross relays that "He made me play a song in front of the whole church after only my second session. I think I held my breath throughout the entire song."

Mable took those thirteen lessons and made them the foundation for a career of service to God through music. She played by ear for many years and has said that she learned a little "dab" and a little "do" from many great musicians.

Her musical talents have led her to service as a musical director for Goodman Baptist Church, Bells Chapel, True Faith, Mt. Zion Cobbsville and Mama Lillie Cross and The Canton Gospel Chorus. But knowing that there is always room for improvement, Mable once again took on the role of a student as she was tutored by Mr. Randolph Watson and Ms. Anjannetu Jackson, two great musicians of their own accord. Ms. Ross also enjoys furthering her musical education by taking online courses.

Ms. Ross is the musician as well as a member of the Humble Jerusalem M. B. Church in Canton, Mississippi. She owns and operates Hair 911 Beauty Salon with her daughter.

Although proud of her musical and cosmetological accomplishments, she considers her greatest accomplishments to be a loving mother to Edward, Nicole and Christopher and a loving grandmother to Brenden, Cameron, Tyqunesha, Edward, Jr., Tyasia, Christopher, Jr., Christian, Jayden, Sha'Nila, Kaleb, Aaliyah and Zariyonna and a loving sister, aunt and friend to the Canton Community. She is proud to be the beneficiary of God's endur-

Sister Thea Bowman

(December 29, 1937 – March 30, 1990)

She was born Bertha Bowman. Her grandfather had been born a slave, but her father was a physician and her mother a teacher. She was raised in a Methodist home but, with her parents' permission, converted to the Roman Catholic faith at the age of nine, and later joined the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration at La Crosse, Wisconsin. There she attended Viterbo University, run by her congregation. Sister Thea later attended The Catholic University of America for advanced studies, where she wrote her doctoral thesis on the American writer, William Faulkner.

Sister Thea taught at an elementary school in La Crosse, Wisconsin and then relocated back to Canton to teach at Holy Child Jesus Catholic School. She later taught at her alma maters, Viterbo College in La Crosse and the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., as well as at Xavier University in New Orleans, Louisiana. In his book, Eleven Modern Mystics, Victor M. Parachin, a meditation teacher, notes her impact upon Catholic liturgical music by providing an intellectual, spiritual, historical and cultural foundation for developing and legitimizing a distinct worship form for black Catholics. She explained: “When we understand our history and culture, then we can develop the ritual, the music and the devotional expression that satisfy us in the Church.”

Bowman became instrumental in the publication in 1987 of a new Catholic hymnal, Lead Me, Guide Me: The African American Catholic Hymnal, the first such work directed to that community. James P. Lyke, Auxiliary Bishop of Cleveland (also an African-American), coordinated the hymnal project, saying it was born of the needs and aspirations of Black Catholics. Bowman was actively involved in helping select hymns to be included. The hymnal includes an essay by her titled “The Gift of African American Sacred Song.” In it she says “Black sacred song is soulful song” and then describes it these five ways: Holistic, Participatory, Real, Spirit-Filled, and Life-Giving.

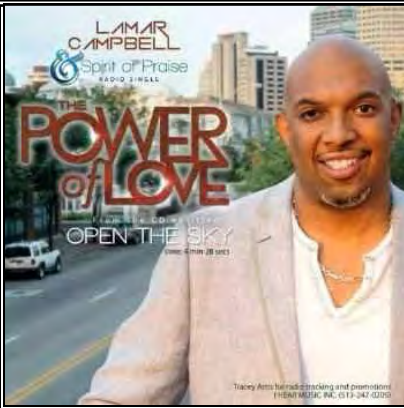

After a career of 16 years in education, the Bishop of Jackson, Mississippi, invited Bowman to become a consultant for intercultural awareness for his diocese. She then became more directly involved with ministry to her fellow African-Americans. She began to give inspirational talks to Black congregations and found a tremendous response by the people to whom she spoke. Even after she developed cancer and her health began a steady decline, she continued to speak to religious groups, becoming a model of hope and faith.

She appeared on the news show 60 Minutes with Mike Wallace. She told Wallace that: “I think the difference between me and some people is that I'm content to do my little bit. Sometimes people think they have to do big things in order to make change. But if each one would light a candle we'd have a tremendous light!”

In 1989, shortly before her death, in recognition of her contributions to the service of the Church, she was awarded an honorary Doctorate in Religion by Boston College in Massachusetts.

Sister Thea died of cancer on March 30, 1990 at age 52, in Canton and was buried with her parents in Memphis, TN.

Musical Guest

Minister Lamar Campbell

(Indianapolis, IN)

Minister Campbell is the Founder of Lamar Campbell & Spirit of Praise. Born and raised in Indianapolis, Indiana, Lamar was active in the church and musically gifted from an early age. He began playing the piano in his home church from the age of eight, and by age fifteen, he became the music director of another church. After graduating from high school he felt a call to music and studied music at the Jordan Music College at Butler University in Indianapolis.

Shortly after, in the late '80s, he founded his first group known then simply as Lamar Campbell & Praise. That ensemble released a major-label album two years later that performed well nationally, yielding a major hit titled, "This Debt of Love I Owe," and made the act a significant name in Indianapolis and the surrounding areas

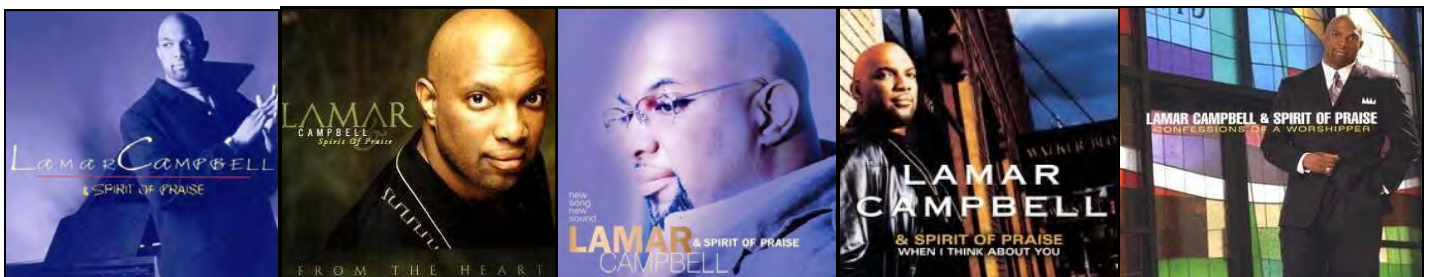

Lamar chose to disband that group after three years in 1992 when he felt attention had shifted toward himself and praise as 'personalities', and too far away from more God and ministry-centered focus, leading Lamar to form Lamar Campbell & Spirit of Praise in 1995. They made their debut on Tyscot Records in 1995 with "Ready." Three years later, they moved to EMI Gospel, where they released Lamar Campbell & Spirit of Praise. "I Need Your Spirit" followed in mid-1999, and "When I Think About You" was released a year later. These projects produced chart topping songs such as "He Won't Let you Down," "It's All About the Love," "Closer" and "More Than Anything" to mention a few.

From the Heart was released in 2005. Staying true to form, this album is powerful with praise and worship. Song after song will take you on a spiritual journey of praise and thanksgiving ushering you into the sweet presence of the Lord with an enthusiasm and anointing that's more than just superior musical styling, and extraordinary vocal expression; it's personal.

Smooth choir blends, outstanding vertical lyrics, and a fervent desire to worship make this project one of his most powerful releases yet; as well as a much wanted addition to any gospel lovers' collection.

"It's important to reach out to the world with gospel music in order to try and draw them into the church," says Lamar, who co-wrote eight of the album's ten songs, "and once they are there, they'll still need something that's going to feed them, teach them, minister to them, and keep them there. That's what I want this album to provide... music that gets to people's hearts, music that puts them into relationship with Jesus Christ and with the people of God

Lamar recently released his new musical offering yielding the hit single entitled, OPEN THE SKY!

Reasons Why We Don't Go To Church

- I'm not ready to commit to Christ....
- I had a bad experience....
- I don't have anything to wear...
- The services are long or boring....
- Unfriendly church members...
- The sermons are hard to understand....
- I just don't want to....
- They want too much money....

Don't let the usual excuses stop you from finding your peace of mind!
