

"Straight From the Cask"

Town Branch American Single Malt

Double Cask -

Bourbon Barrel over 10yrs, finished in Fresh Town Branch Bourbon Barrel

Nose Sweet butter, maple - certainly from the fresh bourbon barrel finish, corn flakes, touch of fresh hay.

Palate Caramel, raw honey, soft oak, burnt molasses, a slight citrus sweetness, juicy fruit gum.
Water nicely blends the flavors and brings up the honey and light toffy.

Finish More molasses, very slight pepper on the end of a lingering finish. Gentle burn, would never know is 54.5% ABV

Oloroso Sherry Barrel -

10 Years. 4 Months – entirely in the sherry barrel

Nose Ripe cherries, old oak, chocolate, dark molasses, baked plums – the more it breaths, the more the chocolate and fruits come out; water heightens this even more.

Palate Baked cherries and plums, molasses and dark coco. Raisins in the middle palate.
Water opens it up quite nicely with the molasses and cocoa becoming dominant.
So many years in the Oloroso Sherry barrel adds a significant twist.

Finish Mature oak, cocoa, burnt fruits with less sweet. Slight pepper. A bit dry, but really lingers.
Water brings out a milk chocolate and sweeter fruits. Just does not feel like 60% ABV.
