

“The Flame”

I've got God; Jesus Christ as my Savior What could be greater?
I've got God; Jesus Christ as my Savior Who deserves that kind of favor?

I was waitin' on a miracle, not realizing the miracle is livin'
Dreamin' of a blessing, not knowin' the blessing is believin'
Now I stand with faith in His grace
Stronger than what the enemy can take
Yes, I've got grace and love from the Lord...
(Whoa...) What a powerful sword

Yeah! I'm on fire and I'm walking through the flames
Flame's that save! Flames that save!
Yeah! I'm on fire and I'm walking through the flames
I'm on fire to be saved! I'm on fire to be saved!

I was told to be silent, to wait until later
But I can't hold back when His love is greater
I've been walkin', talkin', thinkin', learnin'
Feelin' this fire that's constantly burnin'
The increase in faith is the flame that's flowin'
I surrender it all — His mercy's been showin'
Some say I've been scorched... but take a look closer
Nooo... it ain't the devil's joke that lit me up...
IT'S MY FATHER IN HEAVEN THAT FILLED UP MY CUP!
Filled up my cup... Filled up my cup...
(Oh oh ohhhh... He's fillin' me...) (Oh oh ohhhh... endlessly...)

My eyes have been opened by John 9:11
Now you see I've been kissed by the Son,
I've been lifted to heaven

I'm lit, I'm lit, I've been set on fire
This is His will, His holy desire!

I'm on fire! I've been lit by the flame!
I've been burnin' all day! I've been burnin' all day!
I'm on fire! I've been lit by the flame!
This holy burn won't fade away!

I've got God; Jesus Christ as my Savior
There is nothing greater...

I've got God; Jesus Christ as my Savior
Yes — I have that kind of favor!

(Filled up my cup...) (Filled up my cuuup...) (Amen...)
