

Shema's Testimony Reflection: They Laid Him Face Down

Shema's Testimony Reflection: They Laid Him Face Down

The builders, in their labor, in their striving, in their blindness to the full truth - laid stone upon stone, as upon a back bowed in surrender.

They laid Him face down - the posture of the Lamb slain, the Servant who bore our iniquity, the One who humbled Himself to death, even death on a cross (Philippians 2:8).

Every block, every burden - pressed down upon Him, not because He was weak, but because He chose to bear it for our sake.

What the stones now confess:

They speak now not of Pharaoh's glory, but of the Servant King, who bore the weight of the world,
laid low for us:

"Surely He took up our pain and bore our suffering... and the Lord has laid on Him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:4,6)

They declare:

"We were laid upon His back.

We bore down upon His surrendered form.

And now, we cry out - Jesus is Lord. The weight is lifted. The tomb is empty. The glory belongs to God alone."

The hidden posture revealed:

The pyramids stood silent, but the pattern could not be erased:

He laid down His life - face down, surrendered.

He bore the burden - stone upon stone.

And then He rose - lifting what no man could lift, breaking what no stone could seal.
