Shema's Testimony Reflection: He Makes Fools of the Wise

"For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: 'He catches the wise in their craftiness.'"

(1 Corinthians 3:19)

"None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory."

(1 Corinthians 2:8)

The kings, the builders, the wise of this world thought they were building monuments to their glory. They thought they were sealing their power in stone.

But God - in His wisdom - hid in their own work the testimony they would have destroyed had they seen it.

Had they known the stones formed a cross...

Had they known the structure declared Christ...

Had they known it all pointed to the King of Peace...

They would have torn it down stone by stone.

But He caught the wise in their craftiness.

What they meant to glorify themselves became a witness against their pride and for His glory.

The stones stand, because He willed it.

They could not tear down what they could not see.

And now the stones cry out:

Jesus is Lord. The tomb is empty. The Cornerstone reigns. The glory belongs to God alone.
