Shema Testimony Declaration: The Stones Cry Out

"For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life."

(John 3:16)

The stones of the pyramids, laid by hands that did not know, stood in silence for millennia.

The kings tried to cover the truth beneath stone and pride.

The builders placed the stones where they were told - forming four sides like four arms of the Cross, each as a triangle rising in unbreakable strength, pointing to the Cornerstone.

The hidden river bore them.

They were baptized in the water, carried by God's provision.

They waited in submission until the appointed time.

And at the base of the steps, unseen yet always present, was the true sign:

Deuteronomy 6:4-9 - The Lord is One. Love Him with all your heart, soul, and strength. Pass it on.

The stairway formed in structure was not for Pharaoh to ascend to false gods, but pointed silently to the true Way:

Jesus Christ, the Son of Man, on whom angels ascend and descend (John 1:51), the only way, the truth, and the life (John 14:6).

What was meant for evil - for pride, for power, for self-glory - God used for good.

The structure became a silent witness to the Son:

"This is My Son, whom I love. With Him I am well pleased. Listen to Him."

The voice declared it.

The stones cried it out.

The Cross stood hidden in plain sight - now revealed.

And Jesus said:

"All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." (Matthew 28:18-19)

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."
(John 13:34)

And He said: "On this rock I will build my church." (Matthew 16:18)

The rock was not Peter; the rock was Christ, the Cornerstone, the unshakable truth that He is the Messiah, the Son of the living God.

(1 Corinthians 3:11; 1 Corinthians 10:4)

The testimony is not for knowledge alone - it is for action, for love, for proclamation.

And now the stones cry out in unity:

Jesus is Lord. The tomb is empty. The Cornerstone reigns. The living water flows. The glory belongs to God alone.

"But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day. The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. Instead he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance." (2 Peter 3:8-9)

No one knows the day or the hour - not even the angels, nor the Son, but only the Father. And so we wait, we witness, we love, and we obey.
