

Remember when I first met you
A lunchtime coffee standing in a long queue
I plucked up courage to say something
And we spoke together for a minute or two
I hoped you'd stay and drink at the bar
But you went off in your car
Oh, you left me dreaming about beautiful you

Beautiful you - your eyes looking deep into mine
Beautiful you - I could have stood there to the end of time
Bought so much coffee day after day
But you never came back that way
Oh, you left me dreaming about beautiful you

Fate decided I would see you once more
A chance meeting one weekend at a local store
We passed each other and we said hello,
Then we chatted for a while outside the door
I invited you to lunch with me
You said yes and I could see
Oh, I'd never stop dreaming about beautiful you

Beautiful you - your eyes looking deep into mine
Beautiful you - I could have stayed there to the end of time
Then we started going out
And you left me in no doubt
Oh, I'd never stop dreaming about beautiful you

Continued...

Beautiful you - your eyes looking deep into mine
Beautiful you - I could have waited to the end of time
Now we're together every day
So full of joy that it turned out this way
Oh, I'll never stop dreaming about beautiful you
Each day I spend with beautiful you
Each night I spend with beautiful you
