

And now I feel so lucky
We're taking this flight tonight
Our destination honey,
Is filled with so many sights
And we've been waiting so long
For this summer holiday
Fearing something could go wrong
To stop us getting away

But now we can take it easy
We're flying across the world
Leaving behind the busy
Our destination just you and me

The world is passing below
In thousands of tiny lights
The sky lit by a cool glow
The moon's shining bright tonight
We'll celebrate with red wine
And lay back and close our eyes
With no more stress or deadlines
As we head across the sky

And now we can take it easy
We're flying across the world
Leaving behind the busy
Our destination just you and me

Continued...

we'll dream of warming sunshine
And quiet bars beside the sea
A scenic mountain back drop
And gardens with shading trees
The sounds of breaking waves that Rise gently up the shore
We'll walk on sandy beaches
Let's stay there for evermore

And now we can take it easy
We're flying across the world
Leaving behind the busy
Our destination just you and me
