

The moment I saw your face
It broke my heart in two
The moment I saw your face
It broke my heart in two
To see how they'd treated you
It broke my heart in two

The evil they had done
It broke my heart in two
The evil they had done
It broke my heart in two
To see what they'd done to you
It broke my heart in two

Yet underneath your fear
I saw a light that shone in you
Yes underneath your fear
I saw a light that shone in you
And it broke my heart in two
How it broke my heart in two
