Client Consent Form

I, the owner/designated responsible person of the cat/cats detailed on the attached run card, hereby

- Declare the cat/cats are up to date with their vaccinations, flea and worming treatments.

Authorise Parkview Cattery and their staff to

- Board the cat/cats between the dates specified on the run card.
- Allow more than 1 cat from the same household to be held in the same pen if requested. Cats sharing a pen may be separated if deemed necessary and a revised charge rate will be applicable.
- Administer medication as requested in the quantities specified on run card/medication. If staff are unable to administer medications for any reason, they will request further directions from owner/vet.
- Take the cat/cats to the vets if deemed necessary. We will consult with you or your emergency contact prior to vets visit where possible, except in the case of an emergency. You will be responsible for all vet charges incurred and travel costs (£5 min fee or £1 per mile) .
- Take photos of my pet(s) which may be used on the Park View Cattery website, facebook and Instagram pages.

Whilst every care will be made to look after any personal belongings, they are left at your own risk and it is the responsibility of the owner to collect all belongings at the end of the stay. Left items will be kept for 3 months after your stay and may be collected by prior arrangement.

If any animal is not collected within 14 days of the stated departure date and no communication received either from the owner or their agent, we reserve the right to make alternative arrangements.

Whilst every care and precautions are taken to safeguard the health and wellbeing of all cats at Park View Cattery, all cats are boarded on the understanding that it is entirely at their owner's/designated responsible person's own risk.
