2023 At-A-Glance

Festivals, Celebrations, Seasonal Events and more!!!

Walt Disney World is magical on its own however, there are special events and festivals that make it even more magical. When planning your trip consider if you want to visit during Epcot's International Flower and Garden Festival or the International Food and Wine Festival. If you love the holidays consider visiting in the fall or winter. Disney even has runDisney events!

Disneyland offers its own special events including a Food and Wine Festival and Festival of the Holidays. This year is extra special! Later this month Disneyland will bring it's 100th Anniversary Celebration. Special events, parades and a brand new nighttime spectacular are just some of the special events marking the 100th Anniversary.

Universal Orlando Resort is no exception to festivals and events. Universal's Mardi Gras celebration includes food, parades and live concerts - all included with your park admission. Universal also offers Halloween Horror Nights and various Christmas events.

Tip of the Month

It's time to plan your 2024 vacation!

I know what you are thinking, it just turned 2023! But for you planners out there - now is the time to research and plan your next Disney vacation. What resort best suits your families needs, how many park days and what parks, what restaurants are a must or are we going to stick to quick service?

Reservations for 2024 Disney packages typically open up in late spring. Doing the research now will allow you to book your trip and get your preferred resorts and dates.

Disney Cruises have opened up some of their 2024 itineraries and they fill up fast!

Booking early gives you more flexibility to pay for your trip! Deposits are due at the time the reservation and you can make payments that fit your budget up until the final payment due date.
