Faith and Medical Care

Charles Creech knows a thing or two about interfaith dialogue. As Head Chaplain for Sarasota Memorial Hospital, he cares for more than 1,000 patients a day, as well as 12,000 employees, six staff chaplains and a cadre of "spiritual care" volunteers. Come hear - "Chaplain Chuck," as he is fondly known, share his wise and amusing insights into supporting vulnerable individuals across the vast landscape of faith traditions while training others in the fine art of supportive listening and respect.

This program is FREE and open to all interested people.
Just bring your inquiring minds and your questions.
WIN will supply snacks and water.
