

You are invited to join us at the Reader's Lounge Book Exhibit & Author Panel™!

The Reader's Lounge Book Exhibit & Author Panel™ was created in the summer of 2016 in Lake Charles, La with a mission to connect authors and readers in an intimate gathering as authors share their stories and discuss the important societal topics presented within. Since 2016, the Reader's Lounge has grown beyond our expectations. Since 2016, the Reader's Lounge Book Exhibit & Author Panel has grown beyond our expectations and is now being planted around the world.

Attendees can expect a free, family-friendly gathering with the opportunity to have up-close-and-personal conversations with a diverse line-up of authors from around the world as the event serves as an exclusive 'Readers Meet Up' for book lovers of all ages.

"The Reader's Lounge Book Exhibit & Author Panel was created with indie authors and avid readers in mind. Since the event's inception in 2016, we have created an international literary hub that has established life-long connections of authors and their readers. My favorite part of the event is when a reader thank me for the topics discussed in the panel discussion," said Sierra Demouchet, event coordinator.

Authors can (always) expect a low-cost literary event that allows an intimate conversation with readers. Destined Eloquence Publishing prides itself with creating a loving and supportive atmosphere for all authors. All authors participating in the event are afforded the opportunity to promote and/or read from their work in an Author Spotlight. Panelists for the Author Panel Discussion are selected and notified at a later date, no costs associated (must sign up as an exhibitor to be considered).

Panel Discussion. Book Signing. Readers Meet-Up. Door Prizes.
