

Hi Guys,

I'm looking for my first boyfriend. I'm bisexual and all of my past relationships have been with women.

I live in the Denver Colorado area.

In no order, here is what I am looking for:

- ◆ Sexual: As I said, I'm bi. But women and men bring out different aspects of my sexuality. I'm sexually submissive with a guy. Not just a bottom but I'm a "tie-me-up" type. I want a wolf or a bear. You must be masculine. That's what I am attracted to. Sex is an aspect of a well-rounded relationship. I'll get kinky in the bedroom but want – no, demand – a 50/50 relationship.
- ◆ Intellectual: I'm a smart guy. I love talking about philosophy and politics. I love small talk. I love cultural activities and sport bars. I look and act straight: I can hang at a sport's bar with you and then get freaky when you get me home.
- ◆ Temperament: No drama. No BS. I'll be supportive but don't want a whiner.
- ◆ Ethics. I want to be with a decent and honorable guy. A lot of people – regardless of their sexual orientation – are simply bad in this area.
- ◆ Dinner, movies, camping. Boulder, antique shops, political activities, educational seminars, so on.
