SCHIEDMAYER & SOEHNE GmbH & Co. KG, Est. 1809, as Diedonné & Schiedmayer in Stuttgart, Charlottenstr. 4 / Neckarstr. 14-16, by Johann Lorenz Schiedmayer, son of Johann David Schiedmayer. In 1825 the name changed to Schiedmayer Stuttgart. In 1845 Johann admitted his two sons, Adolph and Hermann, into partnership and the name changed to Schiedmayer & Soehne, still at Neckarstr. 14-16. Adolph died in 1890 and Hermann in 1891, they were succeeded by Adolf, Jr. Later the name became Schiedmayer & Soehne GmbH & Co. KG, with Elianne Schiedmayer as CEO. Elianne Schiedmayer created another firm in 1995 named Schiedmayer Celestbau. See Schiedmayer Celesta GmbH for additional information. Since early 1984 Schiedmayer & Soehne pianos were being made under license by Kemble, in England.	1881-11408	1904-23199	1927-42267	1961-54132
