- THE SERVICE – The provision of dog boarding located at Coalford Croft, Peterculter, Aberdeenshire, AB14 0LT.
- THE DOG – THE OWNER's dog or dogs being boarded as part of THE SERVICE.

- BOOKING PERIOD – The duration of a BOOKING as agreed between THE OWNER and CCR.
- BOOKING CHARGE – The total charge for a BOOKING

2.0 YOUR CONTRACT

By signing this document and/or confirming a BOOKING, THE OWNER accepts these terms and conditions and confirms that they will be strictly complied with for any current or future BOOKING.

3.0 BOOKING CONFIRMATION AND PAYMENT

Payment of a non-refundable deposit equating to 50% of the BOOKING CHARGE is required from THE OWNER to confirm a BOOKING.

THE OWNER will settle the balance of the BOOKING CHARGE on or before collection of THE DOG from CCR. All payments will be in GB Pounds Sterling by debit/credit card, cheque or by bank transfer to the following account:

Account Name: Coalford Canine Retreat
Sort Code: 83-15-31
Account No.: 18082587

4.0 RATES

CCR's Daily Rates, as advised at the time of BOOKING, are charged on a per day basis for each day or part day that THE SERVICE is provided. This includes day of arrival of THE DOG and day of collection of THE DOG.

A 20% premium is added to the applicable Daily Rates from the 24th December to the 3rd January.

If the collection date is brought forward for any reason the full BOOKING CHARGE will still apply. If the collection date is extended for any reason CCR must be notified immediately to ensure they have sufficient capacity to accommodate any extension. Additional days will be charged at the applicable daily rate. Should CCR have insufficient capacity to accommodate an extension, THE OWNER or the emergency contact named by THE OWNER shall collect THE DOG at the end of the BOOKING PERIOD.

5.0 CANCELLATION

Cancellations must be notified in writing to CCR.

- If notification of cancellation is received more than 4 weeks before the start of the BOOKING PERIOD, THE OWNER will incur no further charges other than the non-refundable deposit.
- If notification of cancellation is received less than 4 weeks before the start of the BOOKING PERIOD, THE OWNER will be liable for the full BOOKING CHARGE.

CCR would recommend THE OWNER has separate insurance to cover such eventualities.

6.0 EXCLUDED DOGS

No dog detailed in the Dangerous Dogs Act 1991 or dog hybrids prohibited from ownership under the Dangerous Wild Animal Act 1976 (e.g. Wolf Hybrids) can be accepted for boarding. No puppy under the age of 12 months can be accepted for boarding.

For the safety and wellbeing of staff and other boarders CCR cannot accept THE DOG for boarding if it has an aggressive and/or destructive temperament. Should THE DOG display any signs of aggressive or destructive behaviour that, in CCR's sole opinion, presents any risk of injury to staff, other boarders or damage to any facilities CCR will request that THE OWNER or the emergency contact named by THE OWNER removes THE DOG immediately. In such instances THE OWNER will be liable for the full BOOKING CHARGE and the cost of any injuries or damage caused by THE DOG and shall indemnify CCR in full for such injuries or damage. Should THE OWNER or the emergency contact fail to collect THE DOG within seven days of CCR's request to remove THE DOG (or such earlier date should CCR consider it reasonable to do so for the safety of its staff, visitors and other dogs), CCR shall have the right to notify the relevant authorities about THE DOG's behaviour and permit such authorities to take the appropriate action and/or transfer THE DOG to a local re-homing facility.

7.0 HEALTH AND WELLBEING

The health and wellbeing of all residents are a priority at CCR. THE DOG cannot be accepted for boarding without a valid vaccination record being shown upon or before arrival. Vaccination records must be signed off by a qualified veterinary surgeon. THE DOG must be fully inoculated against Distemper, Parvovirus, Hepatitis, Leptospirosis and Parainfluenza and must have had a booster injection within the last 12 months. If THE DOG arrives without a valid vaccination record it will not be permitted to board and the BOOKING will be cancelled immediately and THE OWNER will be liable to pay the full BOOKING CHARGE.

CCR recommends but does not insist on a Kennel Cough (Infectious Tracheobronchitis) vaccination, please consult with a veterinary surgeon for advice. If THE DOG has been vaccinated for Kennel Cough it must be at least two weeks before the start of the BOOKING PERIOD to be effective and to negate the risk to other boarders of contracting Kennel Cough from the vaccine. CCR will never knowingly accept any boarder with Kennel Cough but as incubation can exceed 10 days it may not be detectable prior to arrival and THE OWNER accepts this risk.

CCR is located in a rural environment and, for the wellbeing of all our residents, requires that THE DOG be treated for fleas, ticks and worms prior to arrival.

CCR reserves the right to refuse THE DOG for boarding if it appears to be unwell without prior notification and agreement. In such instances THE OWNER will be liable for the full BOOKING CHARGE. When required CCR are happy to administer medication supplied by THE OWNER when provided with clear written instructions regarding dosage and frequency.

CCR employ the highest standards of cleanliness and hygiene however THE OWNER acknowledges there is always an increased risk of disease transmission within a boarding establishment. THE OWNER also accepts that, regardless of circumstances, THE DOG is boarded entirely at THE OWNER's risk.

Whilst every reasonable effort will be made to contact THE OWNER, or an emergency contact named by THE OWNER, in the event of an emergency CCR reserve the right to make decisions regarding THE DOG's health and wellbeing provided that CCR are acting in the best interests of THE DOG and on the advice of a qualified veterinary surgeon. During the BOARDING PERIOD if THE DOG becomes unwell, has an accident, injures itself or seems to be in any type of pain, CCR reserves the right for THE DOG to seek treatment by a qualified veterinary surgeon and THE OWNER agrees to be responsible for payment of any and all 3rd party fees and costs incurred.

8.0 CCR's RESPONSIBILITIES

- Ensure THE DOG is fed in accordance with THE OWNERS's reasonable instructions.

- Ensure any medication or supplements are provided for the duration of THE DOG's stay.

During their stay CCR will provide THE DOG with an additional tag stating CCR's contact details and THE OWNER permits CCR to place the additional tag on THE DOG.

- Provide bedding (preferably unwashed) and any other familiar toys, food dishes etc. that will help THE DOG to settle into its new environment. CCR can provide all these items if required. CCR cannot accept any liability for loss or damage to any items provided.
- Provide food for the duration of THE DOG's stay. CCR stocks, and can provide, a limited range of leading food brands but would recommend THE DOG remains on its normal diet as any sudden change to a feeding regime can cause stomach upsets and distress.
- Co-operate with CCR in all matters relating to THE SERVICE.

10.0 ARRIVAL AND COLLECTION

In order to maintain the daily routine for the boarders all arrivals and collections in respect of a BOOKING shall be between the hours of 10am and 4pm. CCR would recommend arrivals be in the morning in order to give THE DOG time to acclimatise and have some fun before settling down for the night. Arrivals or collections out with these times will be by prior agreement with CCR only.

Should THE OWNER be unable to collect THE DOG in person and wishes to send a representative to collect THE DOG, CCR must be notified in advance. THE OWNER must name the representative in advance. The representative collecting THE DOG must have proof of identity. CCR shall have the right to refuse the collection of THE DOG should it not be satisfied as to whether the person collecting THE DOG is authorised by THE OWNER to collect THE DOG. CCR requires the representative to provide the booking reference, details of THE DOG and the full name of THE OWNER when requesting to collect THE DOG in order for CCR to be satisfied that THE OWNER genuinely wishes for this representative to collect THE DOG and for CCR to be able to identify the representative.

If THE DOG has not been collected within seven days of the end of the BOOKING PERIOD (or such other time as agreed between CCR and THE OWNER) without any notification from THE OWNER, CCR reserves the right to transfer THE DOG to a local re-homing facility if all reasonable attempts to contact THE OWNER have failed during such seven day period.

CCR shall not be in breach of this Agreement nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under this Agreement if such delay or failure result from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control. In such circumstances CCR shall be entitled to a reasonable extension of the time for performing such obligations. If the period of delay or non-performance continues beyond the BOOKING PERIOD, THE OWNER may cancel THE SERVICE immediately by written notice to CCR and THE OWNER shall not be liable to pay the BOOKING CHARGE for the days THE SERVICE was not provided by CCR due to circumstances or causes beyond CCR's reasonable control.

COALFORD CANINE RETREAT

Other than in relation to death or personal injury caused by negligence or fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, in no event shall CCR's aggregate liability arising out of or related to the performance, non-performance or defective performance of THE SERVICE exceed 100% of the BOOKING CHARGE under the relevant BOOKING whether in contract, delict, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise arising under or in connection with this Agreement.

Notwithstanding any other term or condition in this Agreement, in no event shall CCR be liable for any loss of profits, loss of sales of business, loss of agreements or contracts, loss of anticipated savings, loss of enjoyment, loss of or damage to goodwill and/or indirect or consequential loss.
