

Mercy Dawah Centre, Calgary, AB, Canada
Dress Code Policy

The following dress code applies to all Directors, members, volunteers, affiliates, and anyone else directly or indirectly associated with Mercy Dawah Centre while representing the organization and/or giving Dawah. Refusal to follow the dress code and/or repeated violations of the dress code are grounds for disciplinary action up to and including removal from Mercy Dawah Centre.

Gender	Do	Do Not
Men	<input type="checkbox"/> Wear Shariah compliant clothing <input type="checkbox"/> Dress modestly <input type="checkbox"/> Grow your beard and trim the mustache* <input type="checkbox"/> Be presentable and professional	<input type="checkbox"/> Wear immodest clothing <input type="checkbox"/> Wear attire that imitates the opposite gender
Women	<input type="checkbox"/> Wear Shariah compliant clothing <input type="checkbox"/> Dress modestly <input type="checkbox"/> Be presentable	<input type="checkbox"/> Dress very informally/laid back <input type="checkbox"/> Show hair, neck, ears, bosom <input type="checkbox"/> Wear visibly tight leggings

*Due to a difference of opinion on this matter, it is only highly recommended and not required.