Eligibility: To be eligible, a person wishing to be selected as a Hibernian Princess shall be the daughter, granddaughter, niece, or cousin of a member of the AOH or LAOH who represents the Louisville Hibernians on parade day. Participants must be age 6-17.

Responsibilities of a Princess: The Honor Court will greet parishioners and hand out mass programs at the St. Patrick's Parade Day Mass as they enter parade day Mass at St. Brigid. This year, we will encourage the Hibernian Princess Court to appear on WDRB's TV spot on March 9th (6AM) Princesses fill other duties on parade day as needed but will have prior notice of said activity by a LAOH member. The Honor Court will either ride on the LAOH parade float or march with the LAOH in the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade, or will march with their family member or other designee; all options are permitted.

Selection: The Honor Court represents future generations of LAOH Hibernians, and this is one way to pass on traditions. A total of six (6) princesses will be chosen from the following categories: age 6-9; 10-13; and 14-17. In the event that not all positions are filled, we will eliminate the age category limit. Participants will be provided a sash and a crown to wear on Parade Day, which they can keep as a memento.
