A Beautiful Day to Learn

Who Made Everything?

Iqy opened her book.

"Who made the beautiful world around us?" she asked.

Dee-Dee thought for a moment.

"Allah!" she answered.

"That's right!" said Iqy.

"Allah created the heavens and the earth, the sun, the trees, the animals, and all of us."

Akleema looked at the pictures in the book.

"Everything around us is a blessing from Allah!"

Allah Alone Deserves Worship

"Do you know something very important?" Iqy asked.

Dee-Dee leaned closer. "Allah alone deserves our worship," Iqy explained.

"We pray to Allah, ask Allah for help, and put our trust in Him."

Dee-Dee nodded. "So we worship Allah alone?"

"Yes!" Iqy replied.

Akleema pointed to the words in the book.

Look at Allah's Creation!

"Let's look around!" said Dee-Dee.

The girls went outside. They saw tall trees, pretty flowers, birds, and beautiful clouds.

"Look at all these wonderful things!" said Dee-Dee.

"Allah created them," Iqy reminded her.

Akleema stopped to look at a little flower.

The girls took a moment to remember Allah and appreciate His creation.

Alhamdulillah!

As the day came to an end,
the girls sat together.

"Alhamdulillah!" they said with happy hearts.

"Alhamdulillah for Allah,
who created us, cares for us,
and gives us so many blessings!"

The girls smiled, feeling grateful and closer to Allah.

Alhamdulillah for All of Allah's Blessings!

A Note to Parents

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Jazākum Allāhu Khayran for sharing My Little Islamic Adventure – Book 1: Getting to Know Allah with your child. This book was created to help children build a love for Allah, learn about their faith in a simple and engaging way, and see Islam in their everyday lives.

In This Book, Children:

- Learn who Allah is.
- Discover His care and blessings.
- Practice gratitude.
- Build a foundation of love for Islam.

How You Can Support at Home:

- ☑ Read the book together regularly.
- ☑ Talk with your child about what they learned.
- ☑ Encourage questions and keep the conversation open.
- ☑ Use the lessons to model daily Islamic habits (e.g., saying du'ās, showing kindness, and being grateful).

Our hope is that this book helps strengthen your child's īmān, character, and love for Allah as they continue on their Islamic journey.
