

1 PROPHECY

A WORD FROM THE LORD OF HOSTS – THE SEASON OF FINAL GLORIFICATION

Hear, O you who have eyes to see, ears to hear, and hearts to understand—for the Spirit is calling forth a generation destined for great transformation. To you who have yielded to the healing touch of the Most High, thus saith the Lord:

"The hour of Mordecai is unfolding before your very eyes. This is not the hour of man's ambition, but the unveiling of My Vision for this generation. It is I, the Lord, who bring forth this season—not for the elevation of man, but for the exaltation of My Name in all the earth."

You shall be clothed in the garment of My Final Glorification—a mantle that shall distinguish you with signs and wonders, that My glory may be revealed from the East to the West, from the North to the South. This garment shall identify you with the wise virgins, prepared and waiting for the Bridegroom's call.

Because you have feared My Name, I shall open unto you a door that no man can shut. Through it, you shall access strength and wisdom to stand firm in the days of travail. I shall train your hands for war and your feet for swiftness. You shall move in a glory and velocity unknown to this generation. The shadow of death shall not overcome your brilliance, for My glory shall be your covering.

I will pour out wisdom from the heavenly realms, and your spirit shall influence kings and rulers. I will place you in palaces and platforms where My Word shall be declared without compromise.

Your faith shall manifest the unseen into the visible, and those who behold it shall cry, “Holy! Holy is the Lord God Almighty!” Your testimonies shall spread like wildfire, igniting hearts across every nation.

*The war has begun—*a war not of flesh and blood, but for the unveiling of My power in the earth. I shall rebuke the spirit of fear from all who carry this garment. You shall walk boldly, declaring with power: “It is written!” My Word shall dwell richly in your heart, flowing as living water, and you shall usher in My Days in full expression.

Take this word as your manual—for I, the Lord, am the Visionary of this hour. I will allow some of you to ascend into higher realms, that you may return bearing hope for those still on the path. My fire shall surround you; I shall mark you as My own.

In this season of Final Glorification, your eyes shall fully see, your ears shall fully hear, and you shall testify of the mysteries revealed beneath My glory. This season has long been prepared, hidden since the beginning. But now, the veil is lifted. No longer shall you be moved by the forces of the cosmos, but by the timing of My glory.

Respond now, without delay. Let the dead bury their dead—for many are called, but few are chosen.

I require not multitudes, but the appointed, the yielded vessels who will obey My instructions, finish the race, and keep the faith. Prepare to deny yourself and carry the cross—for I have made the way ready before you. If you allow Me, your burden shall be light, for I shall carry it with you.

Though a cloud may come to overshadow this season, you shall shift the atmosphere with the authority I have vested in you. The hunger and thirst I've planted within you are the gateway into this hour. When desperation rises, you shall press in, and I shall feed you My Word.

You shall enter this season in divine acceleration, for the days are short. I am not building heaven on earth—but I shall give My sheep a foretaste of glory divine, even as they run their course.

I am a God of structure and order. When the appointed time comes, delay shall no longer hold you back.

I Am the Lord Almighty, and I share My glory with no one. Be mindful, when My vision brings you favor before men—remain humble, for pride has no place in My presence.

Every curse spoken against you shall be consumed by My fire. No shadow of doubt shall survive among the elect who respond in this season.

This Final Glorification shall be revealed with great power through you, for I, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, shall move as One in you. Healings, deliverances, resurrections, atmospheric shifts, the calling back of destinies—all shall pour forth upon My chosen ones.

I am mobilizing My Bride—those who worship Me in Spirit and in Truth. Through this Vision, I shall unveil the mystery of Christ crucified, and you shall take part in its glory.

I will empower you to work miracles—not to entertain, but to anchor your faith. For what profit is it to perform wonders and lose faith in the end? Because you have humbled yourself before Me, I will clothe you in the grace to resist the enemy, and every deception shall be exposed before it draws near to you.

Stand upon the Rock. Be armed with My whole armor. Declare boldly: “It is written!”

Through the crucifixion of My Son, you are reborn into the child-ship of Eden, restored to what was lost before the fall.

I give you peace that surpasses understanding, and power with boldness. With these, you shall trample every principality of darkness. Your feet shall not stumble.

2 FINAL

“I AM THE ALPHA AND THE OMEGA, THE FIRST AND THE LAST, THE BEGINNING AND THE END,” SAYS THE LORD.

Behold, He is coming soon. Yet before the heavens split and the trumpet sounds, every word that proceeds from the mouth of God must come to pass. For the Lord does not delay His promise but fulfills all things in their appointed time.

We are now entering the season where "Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven" shall no longer be merely spoken—it shall be seen, touched, and lived. The Glory of God—a glory no generation has yet beheld—is coming to the forefront.

The Lord is revealing, with clarity and power, how His Vision—how His Final Glorification—shall be carried out through those who have eyes to see, and ears to hear. Those who walk in reverence, humility, and truth.

He is calling you—and me—to be part of this divine unfolding. We are closer than ever before to the final events, already taking shape before our very eyes. Yet the Lord declares:

"The end is not yet. For I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh, and My Glory shall be revealed to all humanity. In this hour, I will separate the wheat from the tares. My Light shall grow brighter, and darkness shall deepen—but you shall no longer stand in between. Choose this day whom you will serve."

The Lord is drawing the line. The chasm between light and darkness is no longer one that can be crossed casually. The time for indecision is over.

Plant your feet upon the Rock, that the Day of Judgment may not be terror to you, but a triumph.

A lifetime opportunity has been set before you: to take part in the season of God's Final Glorification.

His invitation has gone out in advance—that none should miss their hour of visitation.

Pray. Seek His Face. Let your spirit be stirred and know: the season to respond to God's call has arrived.

The Lord says:

"My child, the time is short, and My heart is grieved. Yet when you see these things come to pass, do not harden your heart. For too long, the darkness has covered the earth. My people live bound in chains of sin, drowning in despair, without light or hope. The enemy has not stolen your inheritance—he has hidden it from your eyes."

He did not take it, but he concealed.

Since the day of your birth, I have prepared abundance for you, but you followed the father of lies, whose deception kept you blind to your true calling.

Yet now comes the season of My Final Glorification—to open the eyes of the blind, and the ears of the deaf.

The generation that worships Me in Spirit and Truth is in need of healing. And I, the Lord, shall heal. I will restore your spiritual eyesight. I will awaken your hearing. I desire to revive in you the senses that once knew Me deeply.

The lies of the enemy clouded your identity—but no more. This is the hour of clarity, identity, and restoration. The Lord says:

"Ask, and your spiritual senses shall be restored. The truth shall be made known to you, and it shall set you free. Those who see and hear again shall call forth their destinies from the ashes. I will restore all your years of spiritual disability. You shall move in the full amplitude of My ordained plan for your life."

The time is soon coming, says the Lord, when you shall no longer run after great men and women of faith, but you shall encounter My power for yourself.

The season is not about titles or offices—it is about you and Me.

I will no longer just speak to you through others—I will speak to you.

"I will restore son-ship and daughter-ship, just as it was in the garden, before the fall. You shall walk with Me again in the cool of the day, unashamed, unveiled, and known by name."

This is the hour.

This is the season.

This is the Final Glorification.

3 GLORIFICATION

THE WORD OF THE LORD – FOR THE SEASON OF HIS FINAL GLORIFICATION

The power of the Lord is descending upon His people—not merely to resist the works of darkness, but to utterly destroy them.

This generation—the carriers of God’s Final Glorification—shall no longer feed into the systems of demonic exchange, trading souls for gain. No! By the power invested in them from on high, they shall tear down every temple of darkness, releasing the captives without compromise, without barter, without fear.

And the Lord says:

“I will teach you to walk in the Spirit—day and night, moment by moment. Your five minutes of prayer shall be extended to fifty. Your half-hour shall stretch into three. For in My presence, time is swallowed up in eternity.”

As you emerge from your secret place, hunger will draw you back in. You will return—not out of duty, but from holy desire. For in My presence, you shall find everything your soul ever longed for.

The Lord says:

“The thirst to hear My voice will become insatiable. For as the enemy increases in aggression, so must your hunger increase in pursuit of Me. Without My Spirit-induced hunger, you will not endure the pressure of this hour. But I will sustain those who seek Me.”

In this season, I shall mobilize My Bride through My sons and daughters across the earth. Where generations before required years to mature in the Spirit, I shall accelerate your growth. You will digest My Word with divine swiftness.

You shall be as mirrors of My Light—you will not stumble, nor veer off path, for My Light shall be your compass. I will give you evidence-based testimonies to strengthen your faith, and with them, you will testify in every land, mobilizing My people.

And the Lord says:

“The sickness you carry while praying for others to be healed... the poverty you face while interceding for others’ breakthrough—these are not forgotten. They are for the glorification of My Name in your life. Keep pressing on. Keep burning for the lost. My Glory shall rest upon your household in a way you have not yet seen.”

You shall call forth the destinies of others, and I shall open their eyes to see, and their ears to hear. No demonic strategy shall hinder My Final Glorification. And every distraction the enemy launches shall be revealed before it strikes—for I will give you sight beyond the natural.

As you carry My Vision into dark places, your light shall increase. Darkness shall not comprehend it. Evil gatherings shall scatter before you. Their plans shall be exposed and undone—not by your strength, but by the radiance of My glory upon you.

I am the Lord God Almighty, and I do not share My glory with another. My child, return all glory to Me. Do not touch it. Do not keep it. This is My Vision, not your ambition. Walk humbly, obey My voice, and I shall lift you higher than you have ever imagined.

Your spirit shall operate from heavenly realms, even while your flesh stands upon the earth. What you perform on earth is already established in Heaven.

No shadow of fear shall dwell in you. No doubt shall take root. You will walk in holy boldness and living faith, and your spirit shall witness the move of My hand. You shall speak My Word—not from intellect, but from inspiration. Do not fear your speech—this is My time to speak through My vessels.

And the Lord declares:

“I have long waited to reveal My Glory to mankind. Now the atmosphere has shifted. Now the veil is lifting. My Final Glorification is preparing to manifest in the natural.”

Blessed are you, My child, for you believed without seeing. This shall be counted to you as righteousness. But now, you shall see with your own eyes the Glory you once believed by faith.

Yet do not be grieved when others see, yet do not believe. For though many are called, few are chosen. Still, every soul shall witness My Glory—so that in the Day of Judgment, no tongue may dispute, and no excuse shall stand.

And the Lord says:

“Know this: the enemy plays a part in the process.

Every storm he's permitted to bring is working for your strengthening. Just as he moved Judas without knowing it would lead to My Son's glorification, so too he does not know My plan for you. He watches your habits, your emotions, your weaknesses. But when you walk in the fruit of My Spirit—love, peace, patience, kindness, self-control—his weapons shall fail.

This is your time to arise and shine, for the Glory of the Lord is risen upon you!

Glory for signs and wonders. Glory for confidence and boldness. Glory for a fearless, fiery, and spiritually fortified generation.

You are My army.

I am lifting you for the hour of My Final Glorification.

4 FINAL GLORIFICATION

A PROPHETIC WORD FOR THE SEASON OF FINAL GLORIFICATION

The Light is rising above the horizon—can you see it?

The dawn of destiny is breaking forth, and the Lord is searching for vessels of honor, candidates prepared to be used in this holy hour of His Final Glorification.

"The hour of Mordecai has arrived," says the Lord,

"The hour for which you have long prayed, the hour you have waited and travailed for. I have found you faithful, and I have judged you fit to partake in this season."

"My peace shall go before you," declares the Lord,

"You shall not fear evil, for I shall replace every root of fear with holy fear of Me."

"The gathering of My faithful ones has begun—watch as I merge them in divine alignment," says your God.

I have hidden within your heart the manual for this assignment.

My Words shall become your words. My Voice shall echo through your voice. My Eyes shall perceive through your eyes. My Ears shall discern through your ears.

I have poured out My anointing upon you that you may stand unshaken.

“As the roar of the evil one grows louder, let your declarations grow stronger. Let My authority thunder from your lips,” says the Lord.

“I will give you a new song of victory, even in the presence of your enemies.

As the cross stretches its arms to the four corners of the earth, so shall Living Waters flow from within you, to the nations—to the East and the West, the North and the South,” declares the Lord.

“I will draw you closer to Me, reducing the distance between us, even as the chasm between light and darkness widens upon the earth.”

Every true prophecy spoken in My Name is now converging. The divine clock strikes the hour.

The same power that called Lazarus from the grave is being released upon you—to restore every dead thing in My Name.

“Your time is not finished,” says the Lord.

“You shall arise in this hour of My Final Glorification. The Light of My Glory is breaking forth, and you have already been marked for a time such as this.

The Holy Spirit is ready. The heavens are poised. I, the Lord your God, am bringing all things together for this holy unveiling—that every eye may behold My Glory.”

Be not a bystander in this hour. Enter in. Take your place.

This is a supernatural moment in eternity, and the Lord says:

"There shall be no other like it again."

And the Lord reassures you:

“My child, be not afraid. I am with you always, even to the end of the age. Your victory in Me is a joy. Your death in Me is gain. For whether you live or die, you are Mine,” declares the Lord.

In the Name of Jesus Christ, the soon-coming King.

Amen.

5 ASSIGNMENT

A HEAVENLY CALL TO ALIGNMENT AND ACTIVATION

- 1) Come as you are. The Lord has already gone before you—the table is prepared, the garments are laid out. He has made provision to receive you, to cleanse you, to shape you in His image, and to straighten your spiritual backbone that you may walk upright before Him.
- 2) Repent of all wrongdoing. Turn from the ways of the world and receive Jesus Christ of Nazareth as your Redeemer and Lord. Surrender wholly to Him—withholding nothing, becoming a willing bondservant of righteousness.
- 3) Claim back your physical and spiritual sight and hearing. Through prayer and persistence, keep knocking, keep pressing, until the veil is lifted, until your eyes see and your ears hear as Heaven intends.
- 4) Take back your dominion. As it was in Eden before the fall, so let it be in you. By the blood of the Lamb, restore your authority to govern, to steward, to walk in rulership under God's design.
- 5) Call forth your destiny. The divine purpose spoken over you at the moment of your birth—travel in the Spirit, by faith, to that day, and take hold of your inheritance through the power of God that is now at work in you.
- 6) Ask for wisdom from the heavenly realms. Wisdom that surpasses the wisdom of men, wisdom that influences kings and nations, wisdom that gathers souls into the harvest fields of the Lord.
- 7) Build the Kingdom. Win the lost. Bring them to the feet of the Crucified King. Use your gifts. Multiply your talents. Let the wisdom from above guide your hands and your heart.
- 8) Be not ignorant of the enemy's devices. Stand your ground. Resist the adversary with the sword of the Spirit in your mouth. Declare, "It is written!", and the darkness shall retreat.
- 9) Receive the full revelation of Christ crucified. Not as a story, but as a living, breathing reality—the Lamb slain, the Son glorified, the mystery of redemption revealed in your spirit.
- 10) Walk in the Spirit—day and night, without ceasing. Let no hour pass without the awareness of His presence. Live 24/7 in communion, led by the Spirit, governed by His will, saturated in His glory.

AFTERWORD

A CALL TO ARMS IN THE SPIRIT – A TESTAMENT OF HIS FINAL GLORIFICATION

"Declare war before the enemy begins it!" says the Lord.

"My Light is rising upon the earth as you stand your ground with the weapon of 'It is written!' upon your lips. My Word shall be your bullets—sharp, precise, and unfailing. They shall not miss their mark, for I watch over My Word to perform it," declares the Lord of Hosts.

In the opening days of the year 2024, a stirring began in my spirit—a divine shift in the atmosphere, a heavenly preparation for a move of God unlike any other.

I discerned a seal—a holy stamp—released upon this hour, marking it as significant in the timeline of Heaven.

Then, on the 6th of February 2024, the Lord spoke clearly: "Mark this day," He said, "for what I begin now will unfold with power, revelation, and purpose."

From that day forward, night and day, visions, dreams, healings, and divine revelations began to flow. One layer at a time, the Spirit of God revealed what had been hidden from the foundation of the world.

On the 6th of March 2024, during a night set apart for worship, I was taken—by the Spirit—into the Heavenly Throne Room. There, I beheld a sacred vision:

The Vision of His Final Glorification, revealed in the form of a heavenly book.

I was given a divine charge:

“Write what you see and hear. For My people must be prepared for the season that now comes upon them.”

A holy deadline was appointed. The time was short. The mandate was weighty. And now, by the grace and help of the Holy Spirit, the task is fulfilled.

Now I pray—that the Spirit of the Living God will guide you through this sacred season of His Final Glorification.

May you walk in revelation, truth, and holy fire.

In the Name of Jesus Christ —Amen.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

The One Who Is, Who Was, and Who Is Yet to Come...

The King of Glory, Almighty God, the Holy One of Israel, Father...

The Author and Finisher of our faith, the Ancient of Days, the Voice that thundered at Sinai and whispered to Elijah, the Breath that hovered over the waters at the beginning, and the Lamb slain before the foundation of the world..

And now, as you walk daily with the Author of this book—the One who chose to dwell not in temples made by hands, but within the yielded hearts of His people—I surrender this introduction not as a final word, but as the beginning of an eternal song.

For these words are still unfolding. Each page is written in the ink of grace, guided by the hand of mercy, and sealed by the fire of His Spirit.

Let the biography of the Author be not confined to letters on this page but revealed through a life laid down. May what is written be only a glimpse of what is lived. For I am simply a vessel among many vessels in His marked generation—a generation chosen for the hour of His Final Glorification.

As you continue to walk with Him, may your life echo the sound of Heaven—may His voice be heard in your silence, His presence seen in your steps, and His love known in every word and work.

All Glory, all Honor, all Praise—to the One True Author.

Amen.

ABOUT THE WRITER

I was raised in a Bible-believing Church, where the foundation of faith was laid early in my life. Throughout the years, I have seen the Hand of God upon me—in ways too numerous to count. His blessings have surrounded me, His protection has shielded me, His guidance has directed my path, His provision has met my every need, His favour has opened doors I could not open, and His mercy has continually forgiven my sins.

My journey is a testament to: God qualifies the unqualified. Let it be declared plainly—I am not a professional writer. I do not stand as an ordained pastor, nor do I carry the title of theologian or scholar. But I am, by His grace, a believer in Jesus Christ of Nazareth—the Son of the Living God.

I have tasted and seen His goodness. I have witnessed His miracles in my life. And now, I simply stand as a vessel in Potter's hand, grateful to be used by Him for such a time as this.

To the One who called me, filled me, and entrusted me with His Word—I return all glory- whose voice spoke, whose Spirit moved, and whose hand guided every word.
